

Break the Silence Long Beach

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS DAY 2012

October 19th

WEAR PURPLE on Friday, October 19th

Join us on Break the Silence Long Beach Day by wearing purple and showing your support to ending violence against women.

PUT ON A PURPLE RIBBON

WEAR PURPLE

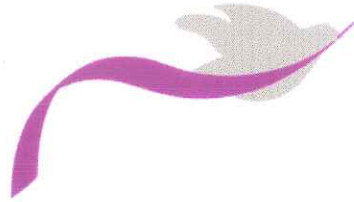

Sponsored by the Long Beach Police Chief's Women's Advisory Group

For more information, email sharon@intervalhouse.org

An Afternoon In Shalom

YOU ARE INVITED TO AN INTERFAITH SERVICE

(Shalom, Salaam, Hebraic and Arabic respectively for peace, wholeness, physical safety and good relations between and among people)

A Domestic Violence Awareness Month Observance (A Community Interfaith Service of Healing, Reconciliation and Restoration)

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2012
4:00 P.M. – 6:00 P.M.

The Neighborhood United Methodist Church Mission
507 Pacific Avenue
Long Beach, California 90802
Parking at Farmers & Merchants lot at corner of 5th and Pacific Ave

WORDS OF REMEMBRANCE, ENCOURAGEMENT & RECONCILIATION; SPECIAL MUSIC; CALL TO ACTION
Featuring Survivors, Interfaith Leaders, Advocates

CO-SPONSORED BY:

SOUTH COAST
INTERFAITH COUNCIL
SERVING SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA SINCE 1983

For Updated Information about this event, call Interval House Centers for Victims of Domestic Violence
(562) 594-9492 or visit us on Facebook.com/anfvr
If you or someone you know needs help call:
INTERVAL HOUSE (24-HOUR CRISIS HOTLINES) (562) 594-4555 OR (714) 891-8121

invites the community to join us in a

Candlelight Walk Against Domestic Violence

When: Friday, October 19, 2012 at 6:00 PM

WEAR PURPLE

Where: Meet at Promenade and 1st Street,
Downtown Long Beach

Why: Walk in honor of domestic violence survivors and in the remembrance of those who have died at the hands of someone they knew

For More Info: WomenShelter of Long Beach
562-437-7233

Supported by: LBPD Police Chief's Women's Advisory Group and these local partners:

End Abuse Long Beach

Food Finders
Feeding people. Giving hope.

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca

greater los angeles

