3 AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE 4 CITY OF LONG BEACH AMENDING THE LONG BEACH 5 MUNICIPAL CODE BY ADDING CHAPTER 5.53, RELATING 6 TO COVID-19 WORKER RETENTION
7

8 WHEREAS, on January 31, 2020, the United States Secretary of Health 9 and Human Services declared a public health emergency based on the threat caused by 10 COVID-19 (also known as the "Coronavirus"); and

11 WHEREAS, on March 4, 2020, the Governor of California proclaimed a 12 State of Emergency (Executive Order N-25-20) in California based on the threats to 13 public health caused by COVID-19; and

14 WHEREAS, on March 4, 2020, after deep concern by the World Health 15 Organization and the Federal government, and as a result of the need to proactively slow 16 the spread of, and combat, COVID-19 in the City of Long Beach, the City Public Health
17 Officer issued a Declaration of Local Health Emergency and the Acting City Manager 18 issued a Proclamation of Local Emergency; and

19 WHEREAS, on March 10, 2020, the City Council of the City of Long Beach
20 recognized that an emergency did exist and unanimously passed a Resolution ratifying 21 the City Manager's Proclamation of a Local Emergency and the Public Health Officer's 22 Declaration of Local Health Emergency; and

23 WHEREAS, on March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared 24 the COVID-19 a pandemic; and

25 WHEREAS, on March 13, 2020, the President of the United States of 26 America declared a National Emergency as a result of COVID-19; and

27 WHEREAS, on March 19, 2020, the Governor of the State of California
28 issued an Order (Executive Order N-33-20) that all individuals living in California stay

1 home or at their place of residence, except as needed to maintain continuity of operations 2 for certain critical infrastructure sectors, to protect the public health of Californians, to 3 mitigate the impact of COVID-19, and to ensure the healthcare delivery system is 4 capable of serving all; and

5 WHEREAS, on March 24, 2020, in order to mitigate the effects of COVID-6 19 within the City, the Long Beach Health Officer issued the "Safer at Home" Order to 7 control the affects and spread of COVID-19; and

8 WHEREAS, it is the desire of the City Council to adopt an ordinance adding 9 a Chapter to the Long Beach Municipal Code requiring certain businesses in Long Beach 10 to comply with citywide worker retention provisions applicable to an employer's change of 11 ownership or control, resulting from COVID-19.

12 NOW, THEREFORE, the City Council of the City of Long Beach ordains as 13 follows:

14 Section 1. The Long Beach Municipal Code is amended by adding 15 Chapter 5.53 to read as follows:

16 CHAPTER 5.53

17 COVID-19 CITYWIDE WORKER RETENTION

18 5.53.010 Purpose.

19 As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and "Stay at Home" order 20 issued by California Governor Gavin Newsom and the "Safer at Home" 21 order issued by City of Long Beach, issued to protect the public health and 22 welfare, many workers in the City of Long Beach are facing significant job 23 and economic insecurity. The COVID-19 pandemic has caused hotel and 24 janitorial service employers in the City to discharge, layoff and furlough 25 workers at a massive scale. Many hotel and janitorial service workers have 26 been separated from their jobs already during the pandemic, and thousands 27 more are expected to face separation in the coming months. While federal, 28 state and local programs, and efforts by certain non-profits, have provided

1 some support to hotel and janitorial service workers in the short-term, what 2 these workers need most is the opportunity of retaining their jobs during 3 business transfers of ownership. To ensure fair employment practices 4 during the economic upheaval resulting from the pandemic and to reduce 5 the demand on government-funded social services, the City hereby enacts 6 legal protections for workers when a business changes ownership.

7
8 5.53.020 Definitions.

9 The following definitions shall apply to this Chapter:

10 A. "Business" means a Hotel or Commercial Property Business.

11 B. "Change in Control" means any sale, assignment, transfer, 12 bankruptcy, contribution, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the 13 assets used in the operation of a Business, or a discrete portion of a 14 Business that continues to operate as the same type of Business of the 15 Incumbent Business Employer, or any Person who controls the Incumbent 16 Business Employer.

17 C. "City" means the City of Long Beach.

18 D. "Commercial Property Business" means an owner, operator, 19 manager or lessee, including a contractor, subcontractor, or sublessee, of a 20 non-residential property in the City that provides janitorial services and 21 employs twenty-five (25) or more employees.

22 E. "Employment Commencement Date" means the date on which 23 a Worker retained by a Successor Business Employer pursuant to this 24 Ordinance commences work for the Successor Business Employer in 25 exchange for compensation under terms and conditions established by the 26 Successor Business Employer or as required by law.

27 F. "Hotel" has the same meaning as in Section 9.02.080 of the 28 Long Beach Municipal Code. This Chapter only applies to hotels with 1 twenty-five (25) or more employees who provide services in conjunction with 2 the hotel's purpose.

3 G. "Incumbent Business Employer" means the Person who owns,
4 controls, subcontracts or operates a Hotel or Commercial Property Business 5 prior to the Change in Control.

6 H. "Length of Service" means the total of all periods of time
7 during which a Worker has been in active service, including periods of time 8 when the Worker was on leave or vacation.

9 I. "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, limited 10 partnership, limited liability company, business trust, estate, trust, 11 association joint venture, agency, instrumentality, or any other legal or 12 commercial entity, whether domestic or foreign.

13 J. "Successor Business Employer" means the Person who owns 14 controls, and/or operates a Business after a Change in Control.

15 K. "Transfer Document" means the purchase agreement or other 16 documents creating a binding arrangement to effect the Change in Control.

17 L. "Worker" means an individual employed by the Incumbent
18 Business Employer who performs work at a Hotel or Commercial Property 19 Business and: (1) who has a Length of Service with the Incumbent Business 20 Employer for six (6) months or more; (2) whose primary place of 21 employment is a Business subject to a Change in Control; (3) who is 22 employed or contracted to perform work functions directly by the Incumbent 23 Business Employer, or by a Person who has contracted with the Incumbent 24 Business Employer to provide services at the Business subject to the 25 Change in Control; and (4) who worked for the Incumbent Business 26 Employer on or after March 4, 2020, and prior to the execution of the 27 Transfer Document. "Worker" does not include a person employed as a 28 manager, supervisor, or confidential employee.

1 5.53.030 Business worker retention.

2 A. Business Employer's Responsibilities.

3 1. The Incumbent Business Employer shall, within fifteen
4 (15) days after execution of a Transfer Document, provide to the Successor
5 Business Employer the name, address, date of hire, and occupation 6 classification of each Worker.

7 2. The Successor Business Employer shall maintain a 8 preferential hiring list of Workers identified by the Incumbent Business 9 Employer as set forth in Subsection A.1 of this Section, and shall be 10 required to hire from that list for a period beginning upon the execution of 11 the Transfer Document and continuing for six (6) months after the Business 12 is open to the public under the operation of the Successor Business 13 Employer.

14 3. If the Successor Business Employer extends an offer of 15 employment to a Worker, the Success Business Employer shall retain 16 written verification of that offer for no fewer than three (3) years from the 17 date the offer was made. The verification shall include the name, address, 18 date of hire, and occupation classification of each Worker.

19 B. Transition employment period.

20 1. A Successor Business Employer shall retain each 21 Worker hired pursuant to this Chapter for no fewer than ninety (90) days 22 following the Worker's Employment Commencement Date. During the ninety 23 (90)-day transition employment period, a Worker shall be employed under 24 reasonable terms and conditions of employment or as required by law. The 25 Successor Business Employer shall provide a Worker with a written offer of 26 employment. This offer shall remain open for at least five (5) business days 27 from the date of the offer. A "business day" is any day except for Saturday, 28 Sunday or official state holidays.

2. If, within the period established by Section A.2, the Successor Business Employer determines that it requires fewer Workers than were required by the Incumbent Business Employer, the Successor Business Employer shall offer the position to the Worker in the same occupational classification with the greatest Length of Service with the Incumbent Business Employer.

3. During the ninety (90)-day transition employment period, the Successor Business Employer shall not discharge without cause a Worker retained pursuant to this Chapter.

4. At the end of the ninety (90)-day transition employment period, the Successor Business Employer shall perform a written performance evaluation for each Worker retained pursuant to this Ordinance. If the Worker's performance during the ninety (90)-day transition employment period is satisfactory, the Successor Business Employer shall consider offering the Worker continued employment under the terms and conditions established by the Successor Business Employer or as required by law. The Successor Business Employer shall retain a record of the written performance evaluation period of no fewer than three years.

C. Notice of change in control.

1. The Incumbent Business Employer shall post written notice of the Change in Control at the location of the affected Business within five (5) business days following the execution of the Transfer Document. Notice shall remain posted during any closure of the Business and for six (6) months after the Business is open to the public under the Successor Business Employer.

2. Notice shall include, but not be limited to, the name of the Incumbent Business Employer and its contact information, the name of

1 the Successor Business Employer and its contact information, and the 2 effective date of the Change in Control.

3 3. Notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the 4 Business so as to be readily viewed by Workers, other employees, and 5 applicants for employment.

6
7 5.53.040 Enforcement.

8 A. A Worker may bring a private right of action in the Superior 9 Court of the State of California against an Incumbent Business Employer or 10 the Successor Business Employer for violations of this Chapter and may be 11 awarded:

12 1. Hiring and reinstatement rights pursuant to this 13 Chapter. For a Worker, the ninety (90)-day transition employment period 14 begins on the Worker's Employment Commencement Date with the 15 Successor Business Employer.

16 2. Front or back pay for each day the violation continues, 17 which shall be calculated at a rate of compensation not less than the higher 18 of:

19 a. The average regular rate of pay received by the 20 Worker during the last three (3) years of the Worker's employment in the 21 same occupation classification; or

22 b. The most recent regular rate of pay received by 23 the Worker while employed by either the Business, Incumbent Business 24 Employer, or the Successor Business Employer.

25 3. Value of the benefits the Worker would have received 26 under the Successor Business Employer's benefits plan.

27 B. A civil action brought by a Worker alleging a violation of any 28 provision of this Chapter shall commence only after the following

1 requirements have been met:

2 1. The Worker provides written notice to the Incumbent 3 Business Employer and/or the Successor Business Employer of the 4 provisions of this Chapter alleged to have been violated and the facts 5 supporting the alleged violation; and

6 2. The Incumbent Business Employer and/or the 7 Successor Business Employer is provided fifteen (15) days from receipt of 8 the written notice to cure any alleged violation.

9 C. The Court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to 10 a Worker who prevails in any such enforcement action or to a Business 11 Employer who prevails and obtains a court determination that the Worker's 12 lawsuit was frivolous.

13 D. Notwithstanding any provision of this Code, or any other 14 ordinance to the contrary, no criminal penalties shall attach for violation of 15 this Chapter.

16
17 5.53.050 Retaliatory action prohibited.

18 No Incumbent or Successor Business Employer employing a Worker 19 shall discharge, reduce in compensation, or otherwise discriminate against 20 any Worker for opposing any practice proscribed by this Chapter, for 21 participating in proceedings related to this Chapter, for seeking to exercise 22 their rights under this Chapter by any lawful means, or for otherwise 23 asserting rights under this Chapter.

24
25 5.53.060 Exemption for collective bargaining agreement.

26 All of the provisions of this Chapter, or any part thereof, may be 27 expressly waived in a collective bargaining agreement, but only if the waiver 28 is explicitly set forth in the agreement in clear and unambiguous terms.

Unilateral implementation of terms and conditions of employment by either party to a collective bargaining relationship shall not constitute a waiver of all or any of the provisions of this Chapter.

5.53.070 No waiver of rights.

Except for a collective bargaining agreement provision made pursuant to Section 5.53.060, any waiver by a Worker of any or all provisions of this Chapter shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable. Other than in connection with the bona fide negotiation of a collective bargaining agreement, any request by an Employer to a Worker to waive rights given by this Chapter shall be a violation of this Chapter.

5.53.080 Severability.

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The City Council hereby declares that it would have adopted this Ordinance and each and every section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof not declared invalid or unconstitutional, without regard to whether any portion of the Ordinance would be subsequently declared invalid or unconstitutional.

5.53.090 City Manager report.

Following adoption of this Chapter, and every ninety (90) days thereafter, City Manager shall report back to the City Council and Mayor on the effectiveness of the provisions of this Chapter in protecting workers when a business changes ownership, recommendations for additional
