PRESENTATIONS

Employee of the Month - February 2018

Lori Jarmacz introduced Brandon Castaneda as the February Employee of the Month.

Brandon Castaneda is a greater Long Beach area native. Brandon joined the City of Long Beach Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine in August of 2014, as a Recreation Leader Specialist VII-NC. Brandon Castaneda, epitomizes the very best of what a Senior Guard must be. His ability to adapt in fluid environments and learn quickly has made him a staff member that can always be relied upon. Brandon is vital to the execution of our Aquatic programs due to his ability to work well with and empower staff while creating positive relationships with our pool users.

On a daily, weekly and monthly basis he manages lifeguard and swim lesson rotations, completes and tracks monthly reports and checklists, aids in managing staff schedules, knows and provides department program information beyond just aquatics and he does all of this the PRM WAY.

Brandon can currently be found at King Pool, as he has stepped up to fill the role of Interim
