

IF THE LINE CLOSES, WE ALL LOSE.

WHAT'S AT STAKE FOR CALIFORNIA.

ESTIMATED JOBS: 13,857 LOST

ECONOMIC IMPACT: $2.0 BILLION LOST

SUPPLIER COMPANIES: 384 CONTRACTS LOST

As you read this ad, the future of the C-17 program is being debated in Washington, D.C. Under serious consideration are proposals to eliminate this model program. The impact of these proposals on the U.S., California, and in particular on Long Beach and Los Angeles, would be dramatic. At stake are approximately 30,000 jobs across the country, close to 14,000 in California alone. From tax revenues to home values, from schools to charities, virtually every aspect of community life would be impacted.

We urge you to have your voice heard on the future of the C-17. When you look at what's on the line, we've all got too much to lose.
