

Every one of us can stand up and make a difference
anti-transgender

Help counter hate

- Telling your friends and family you are a transgender ally
- Speaking up when you see someone being discriminated against
- Fighting for hate crime legislation
- Blogging about transgender issues
- Telling your representatives about the need for anti-discrimination laws
- Asking your library to carry transgender books and materials
- Asking your library to display the rainbow flag
- And getting involved in local and national events to bring awareness!

What is Transgender Day of Remembrance?

The Transgender Day of Remembrance was set aside to memorialize those who were killed due to anti-transgender hatred or prejudice. The event is held in November to honor Rita Hester, whose murder on November 28th, 1998 kicked off the "Remembering Our Dead" web project and a San Francisco candlelight vigil in 1999. Rita Hester's murder — like most anti-transgender murder cases — has yet to be solved.

We live in times more sensitive than ever to hatred based violence. Yet even now, the deaths of those based on anti-transgender hatred or prejudice are largely ignored. Over the last decade, more than one person per month has died due to transgender-based hate or prejudice, regardless of any other factors in their lives. This trend shows no sign of abating.
