

August 6, 2018

The Hon. Jackie Lacey
Public Integrity Division
Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office
211 West Temple Street, Ste 1000
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Dear District Attorney Lacey,

We are writing to request an investigation by the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Public Integrity Division into whether Long Beach Mayor Robert Garcia attempted to place unconstitutional restrictions on members of the public as to their First Amendment rights to free speech and to petition their government for a redress of grievances. Mayor Garcia appears to have hidden social media posts by people who express opinions that differ from his Administration's positions on issues affecting municipal services; specifically, the need to reform the Long Beach Animal Care Services animal shelter. If that is the case, we believe the Mayor is engaging in viewpoint discrimination in violation of both the First Amendment and federal law, 42 U.S. Code Sec. 1983.

Factual Basis for Complaint

On April 4, 2018, just six days prior to an election in which he was a candidate, Mayor Garcia made a post (<https://goo.gl/tKRZyf>) on his "public figure" Facebook page (facebook.com/pg/robertgarcialb) and an identical post (<https://goo.gl/4n1K8u>) on the official Facebook page of the Long Beach Mayor (facebook.com/LongBeachMayor) which took credit for progress the shelter has made in saving animals' lives. In this post, he solicited applications to a mayoral task force that was to be formed after the election. This elicited a large number of comments and replies to the post. Mayor Garcia responded to many of the comments, in some cases inviting people individually in his capacity as mayor to join the task force, as can be seen in Screen Capture 1 below.

When the comments were critical of his Administration, by contrast, Mayor Garcia appears to have engaged in viewpoint discrimination by removing them from public view, violating the civil rights of citizens under the First Amendment and federal law, as can be seen in Screen Captures 2-10, also below.

The “hiding” of posts on Facebook is more damaging to a person’s right to free speech than simply blocking them or deleting their comments because the person is not always aware of the infringement of his or her free speech. When an individual’s comment has been hidden, he or she is not notified that it has been hidden, and if he/she returns to the comment to look at the post, the post will appear to still be available and readable by the general public. However, it is not. It is only visible to the commenter and his or her “Friends” on Facebook. Unless the commenter makes an effort to look at the post and his/her comment while logged into the account of someone who is not his/her “Friend” on Facebook (a circumstance that is not likely because it is difficult to achieve) the commenter will believe that his or her comment is still visible to the public because it will remain visible on his/her page and on the pages of his/her Friends. Thus, the commenter will not be aware that any viewpoint discrimination has taken place and will not know to seek redress.

To the extent that he has done so, Mayor Garcia hiding of comments disagreeing with his stance on changes at the shelter, and specifically, his hiding of a comment pointing out the timing of the announcement just before an election, suggest that Mayor Garcia was suppressing people’s right to free speech in an attempt to eliminate any negative impact their statements may have on his bid for re-election.

Legal Basis for Complaint

42 U.S. Code Sec. 1983 reads, in pertinent part,

Every person who, under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State . . . subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen of the United States or other person within the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress...

A recent court ruling, in a proceeding against President Trump for blocking them from commenting on his Twitter account, found that public officials may not block users from commenting on their social media accounts because doing so “based on their [the commenters’] political speech constitutes viewpoint discrimination that violates the First Amendment.” (Knight First Amendment Institute at Columbia University v. Donald J. Trump.) In Davidson v. Loudoun County Board of Supervisors, the court likewise found that by blocking plaintiff from commenting on her public Facebook page, County Supervisor Phyllis J. Randall violated plaintiff’s right to free speech under the First Amendment:

If the Supreme Court’s First Amendment jurisprudence makes anything clear, it is that speech may not be disfavored by the government simply because it offends. See Matal v. Tam, 137 S. Ct. 1744, 1763 (2017) (listing cases). Here, as discussed above, Defendant acted in her governmental capacity.

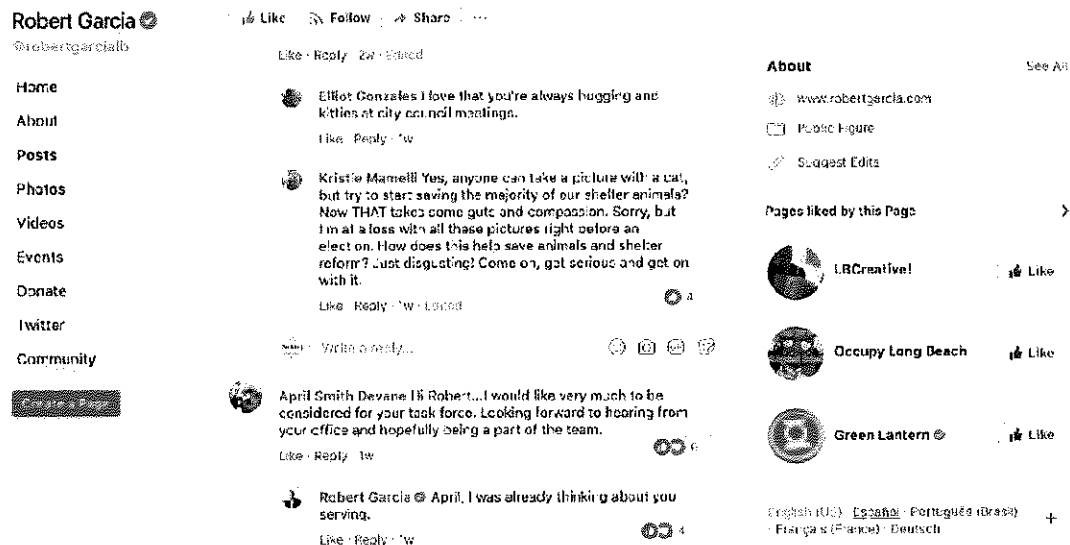

Defendant’s offense at Plaintiff’s views was therefore an illegitimate basis for her actions – particularly given that Plaintiff earned Defendant’s ire by criticizing the County government. Indeed, the suppression of critical commentary regarding elected officials is the quintessential form of viewpoint discrimination against which the First Amendment guards. See Rossignol, 316 F.3d at 521–22. By prohibiting Plaintiff from participating in her online forum because she took offense at his claim that her colleagues in the County government had acted unethically, Defendant committed a cardinal sin under the First Amendment.

See also Karras vs. County of San Diego and Hawaii Defense Foundation vs. City and County of Honolulu, which reached similar resolutions.

Mayor Garcia routinely engages people in communications and interactions about city business on both his mayoral page and his public figure page. Mayor Garcia’s “Long Beach Mayor” page is the official page of the Mayor of Long Beach. Mayor Garcia treats his public figure page as an extension of the Long Beach Mayor page, posting announcements about city initiatives and city business, links to newspaper articles about the city and his work as mayor, videos in which he speaks as mayor, and responses to community requests in which he at times “tags” city departments and asks them to respond to the request. Therefore, both of these pages appear to be public forums and comments by members of the public on those pages are protected by the First Amendment and federal law, 42 U.S. Code Sec. 1983.

Public Figure Page Screenshots

Screen Capture 1: Mayor Garcia solicits participation in a mayoral task force on his public figure page

It appears that Mayor Garcia hid approximately 25 comments critical of his Administration’s stewardship of the shelter. When a page administrator “hides” a comment on a post on Facebook, that comment become visible only to the person who originally wrote the comment and to that person’s “Friends” on Facebook. It hides the comment from the other commenters and from the general public viewing the thread. A sampling of the posts that Mayor Garcia appears to have hidden is given below. Screenshots of each post that appears hidden are provided in the Appendices to this complaint.

Screen Capture 2: Joanne Kwast

Ms. Kwast is a resident of Long Beach. Ms. Kwast commented on the thread that her rescue group had requested and offered to pay for a sign that would provide clear directions to the animal shelter. She recounted the difficulty her group had in getting the City of Long Beach to place this sign in a place that was visible to the public. She noted that a sign was never mounted. Ms. Kwast's comment was on-topic, factual and respectful in tone, and yet it appears to have been hidden.

Robert Garcia @robertgarciafb

Home About Posts Photos Videos Events Donate Twitter Community

Like Follow Share

Joenne Kwast We tried to make a sign to point animals to LBACS. We offered to pay for it too. But the shelter director had so many concerns from the placement to the wording and it had to be temporary. Thus, if you can't even get a temporarily tiny sign, good luck getting this sign replaced. It went on for months and they had no intent of ever placing the sign so we gave up waiting our precious time as it was clear they were never going to put up the sign.

Like Reply 1w

Write a reply...

Stacey Fancher Morrison Here's our three — all adopted through socasa. They are our family. I would interested in serving. I'll reach out to your office.

Like Reply 1w

About See All

www.robertgarcia.com

Public Figure

Suggest Ed its

Pages liked by this Page

- LBCreative!
- Occupy Long Beach
- Green Lantern

English (US) · Español · Português (Brasil) · Français (France) · Deutsch

Privacy · Terms · Advertising · All Cookies

Screen Capture 3: Leslie Shapiro

Ms. Shapiro is a resident of Los Angeles and volunteers for rescue groups in Long Beach. Ms. Shapiro posted a comment discussing the lack of a “solid adoption and foster program” at the animal shelter. She noted that Mayor Garcia had promised to put in place an adoption program in 2014. Her comment was on-topic, respectful in tone and factual in its content. Mayor Garcia appears to have hidden it so that the general public could not see it.

Robert Garcia @robertgarciafb

Home About Posts Photos Videos Events Donate Twitter Community

Like Follow Share

Cindy Gutierrez It is a good start- but not enough!! Long Beach shouldn't rest until it is zero kill

Like Reply 1w

Robert Garcia Like I said in my post above, it's not enough and we continue to work. Thanks.

Like Reply 1w

Leslie Shapiro Waiting on a solid adoption and foster program while healthy and treatable animals are selected for killing. The adoption program was promised by the mayor in 2014. How many healthy and treatable animals have been systematically killed because Ted Stevens and the team he and the mayor are so proud of, have no viable adoption and foster program to speak of. It's 2018. This should be awful. Ted Stevens and the mayor should not be paying these staff, they should be outraged. And, the mayor should be asking Ted Stevens why the promise in 2014 still hasn't happened.

It is someone's job at City of Long Beach Animal Care Services to develop and run an adoption/foster program. If that person or people are not equipped to do it, then let's move forward and find qualified people to do the job.

Like Reply 1w

Kristie Marnett Thank you for being our shelter Animal's voice. They are at the mercy of our city's administration.

About See All

www.robertgarcia.com

Public Figure

Suggest Ed its

Pages liked by this Page

- LBCreative!
- Occupy Long Beach
- Green Lantern

English (US) · Español · Português (Brasil) · Français (France) · Deutsch

Privacy · Terms · Advertising · All Cookies

Facebook © 2018 Chat (28)

Screen Capture 4: Kristie Mamelli

Ms. Mamelli is a resident of Long Beach and advocates publicly for shelter animals. Ms. Mamelli posted the example of a shelter that had a larger intake than Long Beach and was nevertheless able to significantly increase the number of animals it placed. In her comment, she noted, "If we had someone running our shelter like this guy, it would only take overnight for the changes. It's been years for our shelter and here we sit." Ms. Mamelli's post was on-topic, factual and respectful in tone. Mayor Garcia appears to have hidden this post from the general public.

The screenshot shows a Facebook profile for Robert Garcia (@robertgarcia). The main content is a comment by Kristie Mamelli, who is quoted as saying: "Kristie Mamelli PJ Goodhals, that is very likely. Here is a shelter that went No Kill with an annual intake of 30,000! If we had someone running our shelter like this guy, it would only take overnight for the changes. It's been years for our shelter and here we sit: https://m.facebook.com/story.php?story_fbid=10215980155159828&id=1327824834". Below the comment is a photo of Luke Westerman and Paul Powell at the Humane Society of El Paso. The photo caption reads: "Luke Westerman is with Paul Powell at Humane Society of El Paso. April 8 at 7:34am · El Paso, TX · US". The photo shows two men, one in a suit and one in a t-shirt that says "ANIMAL PEOPLE ARE MY PEOPLE", standing with a dog. The right side of the screenshot shows the "About" section for Robert Garcia, including his website (www.rbgarcia.com), public figure status, and a list of pages liked by this page: LBCreative!, Occupy Long Beach, and Green Lantern.

Screen Capture 5: Joanne Kwast

Ms. Kwast commented that the progress at the Long Beach shelter was due to the work of rescue groups and asked Mayor Garcia to list the positive changes that the shelter itself has put in place since Mayor Garcia was first elected in 2014. Mayor Garcia had specifically campaigned as an animal-friendly candidate in the 2014 election (see, e.g. <https://goo.gl/MmDJEX>) and had said that he would increase adoptions at the shelter (lbreport.com/news/oct14/nokill.htm). However, adoptions remain low since Mayor Garcia was elected in 2014. Indeed, cities of similar size do thousands of adoptions more than the Long Beach city shelter. Ms. Kwast's comment was on-topic, factual and respectful in tone. Mayor Garcia appears to have hidden her comment so that the public could not see it.

Robert Garcia @robertgarciafb

Like Follow Share

Home
About
Posts
Photos
Videos
Events
Donate
Twitter
Community
 Create a Page

Joanne Kwast Robert Garcia the progress is being made by the Rescue groups. Please can you list out the positive changes the city shelter has implemented since you entered office that are their OWN programs? Specifically, what is being done to increase adoptions?
 Like · Reply · 1w

Kate Simon Tracy Smith Look at Long Beach.gov jobs. I've seen 2 recent postings, one animal care attendant and transport assist. meaning non profit and rescue coord. assistant.
 Like · Reply · 1w

Write a reply...

Blanca Cole Bianca Cole I am so grateful to the Animal Care Department in Long Beach because rather than euthanize a sweet stray cat who had lost an eye, they used their limited resources to perform surgery and prepare him for adoption. I love my rescue rat! Thank you LR 🐾🐾
 Like · Reply · 1w

About See All
 www.robertgarcia.com
 Public Figure
 Suggest Edits

Pages liked by this Page
 LBCreative!
 Occupy Long Beach
 Green Lantern

English (US) · Español · Português (Brasil) · Français (France) · Deutsch
 Privacy · Terms · Advertising · Ad Choices · Cookies · More
 Facebook © 2018 Chat (29)

Screen Capture 6: Kimba Anderson

Kimba Anderson’s city of residence is not known. Like Ms. Kwast in Screen Capture 5, Ms. Anderson asked Mayor Garcia to enumerate the policies he had put in place at the shelter. As with the other comment, Ms. Anderson’s comment was on-topic and respectful in tone. This comment appears to have been hidden from the general public. Ms. Mamelli’s two comments before and after Ms. Anderson’s also appear to have been hidden.

Robert Garcia @robertgarciafb

Like Follow Share

Write a reply...

Kristie Mamelli Yes, anyone can take a picture with a cat, but try to start saving the majority of our shelter animals? Now THAT takes some guts and compassion. Sorry, but I'm at a loss with all these pictures right before an election. How does this help save animals and shelter reform? Just disgusting! Come on, get serious and get on with it.
 Like · Reply · 1w

Kimba Anderson What policies did YOU implement to make this happen? I know the rescue organizations have been doing most of the work.
 Like · Reply · 1w

Kristie Mamelli Still 1065 too many have been killed at our facility, then sent to be rendered for food, etc. THAT would never happen with No Kill programs in the No Kill Equaton programs you can find at The No Kill Animal Advocacy Center website. This is what No Kill Long Beach has been trying to bring to our shelter. Nothing negative, just a good feeling that you are saving lives RIGHT NOW, not 4 years from now. The turnaround is fast and other shelters have done it within 3 months, not 8 years. This city deserves better!
 Like · Reply · 1w Edited

Kestara Kaye We would have more rescues working with LAACS if SPCA-LA didn't get first pick of all the cute, healthy, cheap animals to adopt and euthanize. SPCA euthanizes at their...

About See All
 www.robertgarcia.com
 Public Figure
 Suggest Edits

Pages liked by this Page
 LBCreative!
 Occupy Long Beach
 Green Lantern

English (US) · Español · Português (Brasil) · Français (France) · Deutsch
 Privacy · Terms · Advertising · Ad Choices · Cookies · More
 Facebook © 2018

Screen Capture 7: No Kill Long Beach

No Kill Long Beach is an animal advocacy organization in Long Beach composed of individuals concerned about the kill rate and lack of lifesaving programs at the city animal shelter. In their post, they reminded Mayor Garcia of his past statements regarding the adoption program at the Long Beach shelter and asked him about his intentions with regard to the adoption program in the future. These comments were on-topic, factual and respectful in tone. Mayor Garcia appears to have hidden this comment.

Robert Garcia
@robertgarciafb

Like Follow Share

No Kill Long Beach - Stayin' Alive Robert, back in 2014, you announced a new full-time adoptions coordinator in front of 200 animal advocates at a Town Hall Meeting and said that person would be tasked with strengthening, growing and developing a 'really strong adoption program at the shelter.' Last year, LBACS only adopted out 682 animals. That's a very low number, and with an adoption program, a large proportion of those 1065 animals would not have been killed.

I don't see you mentioning an adoption program in this discussion. Will you be working on increasing the adoption program to the level that Front Street Animal Shelter - City of Sacramento accomplishes with their adoption program? They have approximately the same budget as LBACS but they did 5,600 adoptions into actual homes last year, in addition to all of the returns-to-owner, transfers to rescues and transfers to other shelters that they do.

If LBACS did even 1/4 of those adoptions, LBACS would be no kill. Can we expect to see a significant increase in adoptions next year, and how can that happen, given that the audit identified 173 recommendations that are fairly troubling that need to be remedied, as well?

Like Reply Commented on by Patricia Turner 11 · 0w

View more comments

Related Pages

-  California Democratic Party
-  Gazette Newspapers Newspaper
-  LBReport.com Media/News Company

English (US) Español Português (Brasil) Français (France) Deutsch +

Privacy · Terms · Advertising · Ad Choices · Cookies · More · Facebook © 2018

Official Page of the Long Beach Mayor Screenshots

On April 4, the same day he posted on his public figure page, Mayor Garcia made the same post about shelter progress and solicited interest in serving on the mayoral task force on the Long Beach Mayor's official page. The post elicited several responses from the public. Those responses that were positive about the post were permitted to be viewed by the general public. However, Mayor Garcia hid one response by Tracy Smith, who advocates for shelter animals in Long Beach. In it, Ms. Smith criticizes Mayor Garcia's announcement of an animal task force as "a flurry of back peddling disguised as pro-animal activism." Ms. Smith's comment, though critical, was on topic and is an example of protected political speech. Yet Mayor Garcia appears to have hidden and to continue to hide her post.

Screen Capture 8: Tracy Smith

Long Beach Mayor @LongBeachMayor

Like Follow Share

Teresa Troutman Let's reduce this number even further this year.

Like Reply · 8w

Tracy Smith These statistics are encouraging, and hopefully, as a result of the audit, perhaps we will see improvement in next year's outcomes as well. I just wonder if the statistics will get as much attention in a non-election year. It seems it takes an effort to get the council to take action on behalf of homeless animals in Long Beach. It should be noted that at in the hours and days following No Kill Long Beach's publication of its voter information guide, Suzie Price finds $3,200 in funding for Fix Long Beach's next sooty neuter event, Robert Garcia announces he's putting together a task force to which he begins inviting his supporters on Facebook, and a political action committee, whose clients include Roberto Jiranga and other competitors with ties to Long Beach, posts its "endorsements" countering N-CLB's recommendations. It is absolutely disgusting and egregious to witness such a flurry of back peddling disguised as pro-animal activism when they could have stepped up and made a difference at the shelter years ago. Now, when their feet are held to fire, they bring out the money, promises of seats at the table with the mayor, and a PAC disguised as an advocacy group to defend them. Funny how things change when it's the incumbent's noods on a platter. Why not take all that energy and use it where it's needed most? A little more attention to the animals and the shelter and a lot less inaction on ineffective shelter management may have resulted in significantly lower recommendations made by Auditor David. <https://www.facebook.com/IBReport/posts/11016523641199710>

Like Reply · 7w

dog green walls.JPG dog with flag.jpg

Contact Us

Related Pages

- IBReport.com Media/News Company Like
- Gazette Newspapers Newspaper Like
- Long Beach Press ... Newspaper Like

English (US) · Español · Português (Brasil) · Français (France) · Deutsch

Privacy Policy · Advertising · Ad Preferences · Cookies · More

Facebook © 2018

YOUR PAGES

- No Kill Long Beach · 51a...

CONTACTS

- Karyl Pettgett
- Betty Ye
- Maghan Turner
- Suzie Sayre
- Staci Cash
- Kelby Barnett-Warner
- Saskia Bo set
- Michele Bilbao
- Aastera Kaye

GROUP CONVERSATIONS

Create New Group

To the extent they are hidden, each of the preceding posts limit the freedom of speech of people whose comments reflect poorly on his efforts as Mayor. Further, the apparent hiding of the posts occurred just prior to an election. And to the extent that they were, they suppress citizens' speech in order to limit a potential negative impact on Mayor Garcia's campaign for re-election which was then underway.

Screen Captures 9 & 10: Number of Comments

Long Beach Mayor @LongBeachMayor

Like Follow Share

Tealaya Comajo, Maria E. and 108 others · 17 Comments · 17 Shares

Oldest

Abhay Menier Thanks for the great work on reducing the euthanization rate (1/0 2017 vs 4/8 2019).

Like Reply · 15w · Edited

Sylvia Ibarra Saucedo Thank you!

Like Reply · 15w

Contact Us

Jacqueline Case and 17 other friends like this

About See All

333 W Ocean Blvd Fl 14 Long Beach, California 90802

Get Directions

(562) 673-6801

www.longbeach.gov/mayor

Government Official

Suggest Edit

Pages Liked by This Page

Long Beach CA Real E... Like

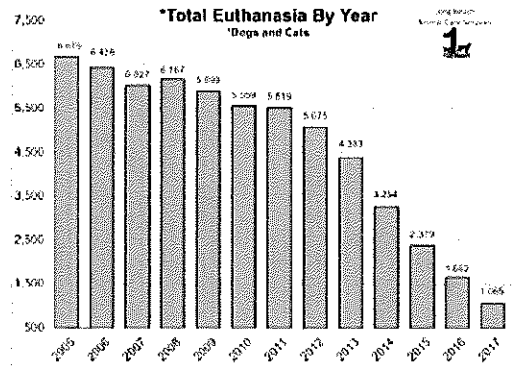

Year	Number of Comments
2005	~1000
2006	~1000
2007	~1000
2008	~1000
2009	~1000
2010	~1000
2011	~1000
2012	~1000
2013	4,083
2014	1,264
2015	2,376
2016	1,862
2017	1,000

The post notes there are 17 comments when signed in on an account connected to Tracy Smith.

English (US) · Español · Português (Brasil) · Français (France) · Deutsch

Privacy · Terms · Advertising · Ad Choices · Cookies · More · Facebook © 2018

68 Likes · 18 Comments · 7 Shares

The post notes there are 16 comments when the general public views it as Ms. Smith's comment no longer appears.

An index of all suspected hidden comments, as well as screenshots of comments, are further enclosed in the appendices.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Very truly yours,

Nathan J. Winograd

RESOLUTION NO. _____

A RESOLUTION TO IMPLEMENT NEW POLICIES AT LONG BEACH ANIMAL CARE SERVICES TO BETTER SERVE BOTH THE CITIZENS AND THE LOST AND HOMELESS ANIMALS OF THE CITY OF LONG BEACH

WHEREAS, the current vision of Long Beach Animal Care Services is to become California's safest large city for people and animals through a proactive strategy of community engagement and enforcement activities; and

WHEREAS, the City of Long Beach and its citizens have demonstrated great interest in community planning and strategies for animal welfare programs community wide; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Long Beach deserve a progressive animal shelter that succeeds at saving the lives of homeless animals at a level that is consistent with the most successful animal shelters in the country;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Manager is hereby directed to revise the mission of Long Beach Animal Care Services to make the attainment of positive outcomes for Long Beach's lost and homeless animals a prime mission of the agency. To achieve this goal, the City Manager is directed to oversee the implementation by LONG BEACH ANIMAL CARE SERVICES of the "City of Long Beach Lifesaving Programs Implementation Plan," attached as Exhibit A, which includes the following actions and programs: (PROVIDED ON REQUEST)

- Revise the mission of LBACS to make obtaining positive outcomes for Long Beach's lost and homeless pets the agency's primary mission, alongside public safety;
- Implement a comprehensive LBACS adoption program to increase life-saving capacity;
- Establish a large-scale foster program to increase cage space and increase the number of animals adopted from the shelter;
- Implement a kitten fostering program with neo-natal fostering capacity;
- Increase efforts to provide high-volume low-cost spay/neuter surgeries to the residents of Long Beach;
- Implement a large-scale volunteer program to staff lifesaving programs;
- Improve outreach to and relations with private rescue organizations;
- Build the capacity of its Shelter Neuter Release (SNR) program to decrease the number of community cats euthanized at the shelter;

- Improve LBACS's capacity for behavioral evaluation and management of animals;
- Decrease owner surrenders through pet retention programs and community outreach;
- Increase redemptions through proactive policies designed to return animals to their owners;
- End Empty-Cage Killing;
- Increase LBACS's accountability and transparency to the public by publishing its save and euthanasia rates on its website;
- Reexamine LBACS's relationship with SPCALA and formalize obligations to ensure LBACS adoptions are not negatively impacted;

The Director of Long Beach Animal Care Services is further directed to provide a briefing on the progress of the implementation of the plan to City Council at its October 28, 2014 meeting.

This resolution shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by the City Council, and the City Clerk shall certify the vote adopting this resolution.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was adopted by the City Council of the City of Long Beach at its meeting of _____, 2014, by the following vote:

Ayes: Councilmembers: _____

Noes: Councilmembers: _____

Absent: Councilmembers: _____

City Clerk