City Charter Amendment Process

City Attorney Prepared Draft Amended Charter Language

Amend and restate Article XIA of the City Charter to establish a Director of Police Oversight and a restructured Police Oversight Commission

Meet and Confer (Phase I)

Staff completed the Meet and Confer process with impacted labor associations regarding Charter Amendment language to restructure the CPCC process

City Council referral to Charter Amendment Committee

City Council referred the proposed Amendment to the Charter Amendment Committee

CPCC Charter Amendment Changes

If approved by voters, the Charter Amendment would:

- Appoint a Police Oversight Director
- Establish a Police Oversight Commission
- Amend the number of members and term of the Police Oversight Commission (to be consistent with other City Charter Commissions)
- Require adoption of Municipal Code provisions for administrative and management functions of the Director and Commission
- Require City Council authorization of a budget to conduct the functions and duties of the Director and Commission.
- Trigger Phase 2 meet and confer with affected labor associations regarding workplace impacts

If the Charter Amendment is not approved by voters:

- Current CPCC structure remains in place:
 - No change in Commission name, number of Commissioners, terms of office
 - City Manager staff continues to provide CPCC oversight function
 - Charter language / Commission authority remains the same
- City staff will continue to implement interim recommendations proposed from the CPCC evaluation to improve CPCC operations and address issues such as efficiency, transparency of operations, staffing, training, and on-line accessibility
