CONTINUUM OF CARE PROGRAM CONSOLIDATION AGREEMENT

33160

This Continuum of Care Program Consolidation Agreement (“this Agreement”) is made by and between the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”) and The City of Long Beach (the “Recipient”).

RECITALS

1. HUD and the Recipient entered into several Continuum of Care Program Grant Agreements, which for convenience of administration, the parties now desire to consolidate into one grant agreement.
2. The grant agreements selected for consolidation fund the same eligible activities within the same Continuum of Care geographic area.
3. The Recipient represents to HUD that Recipient is now and has been in compliance with the program requirements applicable to each of the grant agreements.
4. To accomplish the consolidation, the parties desire to merge the grant agreements into one, with the grant agreement having the earliest operating start date being the surviving grant; to terminate the other grant agreements; and to deobligate funds that would have been expended beyond the end date of the surviving grant agreement’s year end.

AGREEMENTS

3. The funds being deobligated from the Terminating Grant in order to properly align with the operating year of the Surviving Grant is:

Grant No: CA1132L9D061201      Amount $146,433.00

4. The Terminating Grant is hereby terminated and the Surviving Grant is hereby amended by adding to the Surviving Grant all funds remaining in the Terminating Grants after deobligation pursuant to paragraph 3, above.
