PROCLAMATION

Presented to

Deputy Chief Timothy Jackman
City of Long Beach

Whereas, the City of Long Beach is a safer community in which to live and work because of the dedication to duty, professional knowledge and hard work of Long Beach Police Department employees; and

Whereas, Deputy Chief Timothy Jackman began his distinguished law enforcement career as a Police Officer in April 1983 and served in a variety of assignments including patrol, support, investigations, Community Relations and Internal Affairs, officer-in-charge of recruit training and commanding officer of the field-training program.

Whereas, Deputy Chief Jackman currently teaches numerous topics at the police academy and is a lecturer at California State University, Long Beach and at Tiffin University of Ohio; and

Whereas, Deputy Chief Timothy Jackman was promoted to Corporal in December 1990, Sergeant in May 1991, Lieutenant in October 1997, Commander in August 1999 and finally Deputy Chief in January 2003; and

Whereas, Deputy Chief Jackman serves on the board of directors of several charitable and professionally oriented organizations and has spent eight years as a member of the board of directors for the Long Beach Police Officers Association, seven of which he served as treasurer of the organization; and

Whereas, Deputy Chief Timothy Jackman has been a member of the Long Beach Police Department's nationally recognized Pistol Team for more than a decade. He holds both state and national records for pistol shooting; and

Whereas, Deputy Chief Jackman's motivation, perseverance, investigative competence and exemplary law enforcement skills and his tireless efforts within the community have greatly assisted the Long Beach Police Department in the fight against crime and injustice;

Now, Therefore, I, Bob Foster, Mayor of the City of Long Beach, and the members of the Long Beach City Council, commend Deputy Chief Timothy Jackman for his many years of service to the citizens of Long Beach, and extend our best wishes in his new role as Chief of Police for the City of Santa Monica.
