HONORABLE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL
City of Long Beach
California

RECOMMENDATION:

Receive the supporting documentation into the record, conclude the hearing and deny the Permit Application for Entertainment with Dancing by Patrons for The Green Mango, Inc., DBA Golden Villa Restaurant, 1360 E. Anaheim Street, #205. (District 2)

DISCUSSION

The Long Beach Municipal Code (LBMC) requires an application be filed and a hearing be held before the City Council whenever this type of activity is requested and before an entertainment permit is granted or denied.

The LBMC also requires that the City Council make a determination that the permit application is complete and truthful; the applicant and the officers and trustees of the entity are law-abiding persons who will operate and conduct the business activity in a lawful manner; and that public peace, welfare and safety will not be impaired. If this is so, the application shall either be approved for a long-term or short-term entertainment permit. Otherwise, the permit application shall be denied.

City departments have conducted their investigations in accordance with the LBMC. Attached for your review are the departmental investigative reports, the business ownership and permit history, and the entertainment permit application.

The following summarizes departmental findings:

- The Police Department recommends that the permit for entertainment with dancing by patrons be denied. Based on the Vice Section's investigation, along with opposition from local residents, the Police Department is unable to find that the public peace, safety and welfare will not be impaired if this permit is granted.
- The Fire Department finds that the building/location meets department requirements for the proposed use.

- The Health and Human Services Department finds that the building/location meets department requirements for the proposed use with the condition that the establishment remain in compliance with the Long Beach Noise Ordinance (LBMC Chapter 8.80).
- The Long Beach Development Services Department finds that the building/location meets department requirements for the proposed use.

In the event that any of the recommended conditions are in conflict with other permits or licenses, the permittee shall adhere to the strictest of the applicable conditions. This location has been licensed as a restaurant since May 2003.

This matter was reviewed by Deputy City Attorney Cristyl Meyers on May 6, 2008.

TIMING CONSIDERATIONS

The hearing date of May 20, 2008, has been posted on the business location, with the applicant and property owners within 300 feet notified by mail.

FISCAL IMPACT

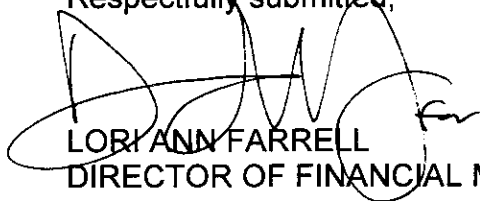

The following fees were collected with the application: Team Inspection $300 and Zoning Review $14 (Long Beach Development Services), Police Investigation $1,000 (Police Department), Temporary Permit $300, Labels $90 (Financial Management Department), and Health/Noise Control $94 (Health and Human Services Department).

The following fees will be collected if the application is approved: Business License $299.88 and Regulatory $825 (Financial Management Department).

Subject: APPLICATION FOR ENTERTAINMENT WITH DANCING AT THE GOLDEN VILLA RESTAURANT – 1360 EAST ANAHEIM STREET #205

The Police Department recommends DENIAL of this application for Entertainment with Dancing, by the Green Mango Inc., dba the Golden Villa Restaurant, located at 1360 E. Anaheim Street #205. This recommendation is based on violent incidents that have occurred at the business, objections from the residents who live within 100 feet of the location, a recommendation from the South Division Patrol Commander, and the fact that gang members frequent this location.

Background

The Golden Villa is a restaurant that serves Asian food and is located on the southeast corner of Anaheim Street and Mahanna Avenue on the second floor of a small shopping center. On February 20, 2007, the City Council approved a one-year short-term Entertainment with dancing permit. During October 2007 there was an ownership change. The current owners are Sophy Khut and Alex Krin. On February 12, 2008, the current business owners applied for an Entertainment Permit with dancing by patrons, live amplified music, and karaoke. A temporary entertainment permit was issued on March 11, 2008. Alex Krin was also one of the previous owners. On April 22, 2008, the City Council approved a type 41 (On Sale Beer and Wine eating place) ABC license transfer.

Crime Analysis

As part of the investigation, Vice Detectives examined calls for service, crime reports and arrests at the above location for a two-year period between February 12, 2006 and February 12, 2008. The report shows six calls for service, five incident reports, and one arrest attributable to the business. For further details, see crystal report analysis.

Notable Incidents

March 10, 2007: Approximately 30 subjects were outside fighting when numerous shots were fired. The subjects ran back inside the business. After a lengthy investigation, it was determined that no one was shot, and no arrests were made. For further details, see DR # 07-19062.

June 16, 2007: A male Asian gang member from the business shoots at another subject who lives nearby. For further details, see Dr # 07-46115.

On June 25, 2007: A male subject was arrested for public intoxication after leaving the business. For further details, see DR # 07-48513.

July 14, 2007: A patron from the business is stabbed in the parking lot. The patron also admits to being a gang member. For further details, see DR # 07-54090.

September 7, 2007: Fight starts inside business and proceeds to the parking lot where victim is hit over the head with a bottle. Police find a loaded shotgun inside victim's vehicle. For further details, see DR # 07-71003 and DR # 07-70991.

Patrol Division

South Division Patrol Commander Jay Johnson was contacted for an opinion regarding the issuance of this permit. He stated the business is a known location where gang members congregate. He said there have been several shootings attributed to the business, and believes the approval of an entertainment permit would have an adverse affect on patrol resources.

Vice Investigations

On February 21, 2008, a team inspection was scheduled. Upon arrival at the location, the business was closed and no one was present to facilitate our inspection. The inspection was subsequently re-scheduled for March 6, 2008. On this date, Vice Detectives, along with representatives from the Fire Department and Health Department, met with Sophy Khut and her attorney Evan Braude. During the inspection, Detectives discussed problems concerning the bar, and stressed the importance of adhering to conditions and the importance of security. Detectives supplied Sophy Khut with a list of conditions that would be applied to a temporary entertainment permit that may be issued. The Golden Villa Restaurant was issued a temporary entertainment permit on March 11, 2008.

Undercover Vice Investigations

As part of the investigation, Vice Detectives went to the location in an undercover capacity on Thursday, March 6, 2008, at approximately 1930 hours. There were approximately ten patrons inside the location eating dinner. Several patrons were dancing to amplified music. There were no security guards inside or outside of the business. It should be noted their temporary entertainment permit was not issued until March 11, 2008, therefore, the Golden Villa was providing entertainment without a valid permit.

On Tuesday, March 11, 2008, at approximately 2245 hours, detectives went to the location. There were approximately 60 patrons inside the location eating, drinking, and dancing to music provided by a live band. There were two doormen at the front door collecting a $10 cover charge and checking identifications. They were not searching patrons.

On Friday, March 14, 2008, at approximately 2300 hours, detectives went to the location. There were approximately 65 patrons inside the location eating, drinking and dancing to music provided by a live band. There were two doormen at the front door collecting a $10 cover charge. However, the doormen were not checking identifications or searching patrons. No hats allowed was the only dress code being enforced.

Resident Contacts

Vice Detectives also contacted residents within 100 feet of the establishment. There were 28 residences within this distance. Nine residents were opposed to the addition of entertainment because of intoxicated patrons, lack of parking and loud late night music, especially when the back door is open. The back door should not have been an issue because their previous conditions prohibited this door from being open during business hours, and prohibited patrons from exiting from this door. Ten residents were not opposed to the addition of an entertainment permit. The remaining nine residents were not home during our investigation and were left a letter requesting they contact us.

Recommendation

Based on the Vice Section's investigation and South Division's recommendation, along with opposition from local residents, the Police Department is unable to find that the public peace, safety, and welfare of the general area will not be impaired if this permit is granted. The Police Department recommends that the application for Entertainment Permit with dancing by patrons, live amplified music, and karaoke be DENIED.

Subject: REVIEW OF ENTERTAINMENT LICENSE REQUEST

Site Address: 1360 E. Anaheim Street, #205
Long Beach, CA 90813

Applicant: The Green Mango, Inc., DBA Golden Villa Restaurant

Zoning District: CCP (Community Pedestrian Oriented)

Proposed Use: Entertainment with Dancing

The Community Design and Development Division of the Department of Planning and Building has the following comments:

A review of the permit history for 1360 E. Anaheim Street, Unit 205, indicates that one Conditional Use Permit Exemption was approved for alcohol sales (Case No. 05-67), but no CUPs or AUPs were found for the subject property.

The subject property is located within the Community Pedestrian Oriented District (CCP). Within the CCP district, dancing by patrons is permitted as an accessory use for a restaurant.

The subject site has previously been approved for an entertainment permit with dancing in 2005. As a result of an ownership change, they have been operating with a one-year short-term permit for entertainment with dancing that expires in 2008. The applicants are now seeking to obtain a permanent permit for entertainment with dancing. As the applicants are not seeking to expand the dance floor area, no extra parking is required.

Planning Bureau recommends that the entertainment permit with dancing for "Golden Villa Restaurant" be approved.

If you have any questions regarding this response, please call Angie Zetterquist, Planner, at (562) 570-6553.
