Executive Director

Ms. Slaten acknowledged several staff members for the excellent job they are doing in the administration of examinations. Lourdes Ferrer, Administrative Analyst for Fire Captain, along with staff members that assisted; Sherre Valdoria, Personnel Analyst for posting of Police Recruit and the administration of the Surveyor examination; Shellie Goings, Personnel Analyst, for the administration of the Library Clerk examination; and staff for conducting the Refuse Operator examination for Donna de Araujo, Personnel Analyst, due to a family emergency. She also acknowledged Sharon Hamilton, Administrative Aide, for the excellent job she is doing with the final phase of the examinations.

Rob Pfingsthorn, Administrative Officer, briefed the Commission regarding the General Fund Fiscal Outlook for FY 16 - FY 18. He stated that the kickoff for the budget development process will begin in January and he will keep the Commission apprised of what's going on with the budget. Commissioner Hicks questioned if there is any indication of a reduction in force coming. Mr. Pfingsthorn stated that there has been no mention at this time; however, he will keep the Commission informed. Commissioner Hicks suggested that staff prepare just in case there is a request. He also informed the Commission that Maria Alamo, Payroll/Personnel Assistant, has been promoted to a supervisory position and will be responsible for the daily HR and Accounts Payable operations and two staff member.

The Secretary presented Deborah McCluster, Personnel Analyst, (35 years), and Rob Pfingsthorn (15 years), with service pins in recognition of their service to the City and citizens of Long Beach. She thanked them for their contributions to the department and congratulated them on their years of service.

The Secretary stated that once a month she will be recognizing an employee who exemplifies the Civil Service Core Values, which for this month is, "Modeling true joy and service to others." She stated that the employee chosen to be recognized for this month's core value is Kym Clay, Administrative Aide, Harbor Department. She stated that Ms. Clay was highly recommended by her supervisors, and in talking with her, she truly exemplifies the core value for this month. Vickie Gordon, an employee of the Harbor Department, spoke on how Ms. Clay impacted her life when she was going through a challenging time in her life.

Ms. Clay thanked the Secretary for the recognition and stated that she truly enjoys helping others.

Stacey Lewis, Assistant Director of Human Resources, Harbor Department, stated that this recognition is truly deserving of Ms. Clay. She stated that she truly epitomize this month's core value. Ms. Lewis introduced Ms. Clay's daughter to the Commission and stated that she wanted her to witness this recognition of her mother.

Commissioner Smith Watts, stated that it is so great that Civil Service recognizes employees for the exceptional service they provide to the City and citizens.

COMMENTS FROM PUBLIC – The Civil Service Commission will hear from members of the public on matters within the Commission’s jurisdiction.

Donna de Araujo, Personnel Analyst, thanked staff for their support and conducting the Refuse Operator examination during her absence.

On behalf of the Fire Department, Jim Rexwinkel, Battalion Chief/Director of Training, Fire Department, thanked Lourdes Ferrer, Administrative Analyst and Civil Service staff for the exceptional job in the administration of the Fire Captain examination. He informed the Commission that he will no longer be the training director, and introduced Battalion Chief Jim Underwood, as his replacement.

Deputy Chief Mike Beckman, Police Department, provided background information regarding the request for a short Police Recruit recruitment during the holidays. He informed the Commission that the Police Department usually conducts one Police Recruit class in a fiscal year; however, this fiscal year they find it necessary to conduct two Police Recruit classes, which requires additional recruiting for ample candidates. He thanked the Secretary and her staff who assisted with getting this done. He stated the recruitment will be opening soon and continue thru the holidays and conclude sometime in January.
