OverDrive: eBooks & Audiobooks

An Evening with Author Rebecca Solnit

Monday, April 23 from 6-9 PM

EXPO Arts Center • 4321 Atlantic Avenue, Long Beach 90807 • (562) 427-7617

Join us for a conversation with Rebecca Solnit, author of Paradise Built in Hell: The Extraordinary Communities that Arise in Disaster, which explores our need for community and common purpose, ideals that are fundamental to democratic social and political life.

There will also be a reception and walk through exhibit featuring thirteen panels that show the hidden stories of the unsung Californians who stood up for their rights in the face of social hostility, physical violence, economic hardship, and political stonewalling. Based on the book Wherever There's a Fight: A History of Civil Liberties in California by Elaine Elinson and Stan Yogi, the exhibition spans the period from the Gold Rush to the post-9/11 era.

This event is made possible through the California Reads Grant Searching for Democracy from Cal Humanities, in partnership with California Center for the Book.

California Reads: Searching for Democracy

April through November 2012 • Books available at your Long Beach Public Library

Long Beach is one of 50 public libraries in California to receive a California Reads "Searching for Democracy" grant through Cal Humanities. In Long Beach, these three books, chosen for their examination of democracy, will be discussed in a wide range of settings: Paradise Built in Hell by Rebecca Solnit, Farewell to Manzanar by Jeanne Wakatsuki Houston & James D. Houston, and It Can't Happen Here by Sinclair Lewis.

These resources are made possible through the California Reads Grant Searching for Democracy from Cal Humanities, in partnership with California Center for the Book.

Look for this symbol for additional CALIFORNIA READS events!
