Dear Ms Gomez;

I was born in Cuba where music is all the Cuban people have to enjoy life. It seems that today in California we are trying to kill business; and now even music, which is the source of the soul.

Forbidden City is an outstanding Restaurant in the City of Long Beach and the live music makes it even more pleasurable. We the residents of Long Beach demand that this restaurant have the right to make the lives of the residents of not only our city but of the surrounding cities enjoyable and more pleasurable.

Forbidden City is not only an outstanding restaurant but also a good source of income, taxes, for the city of Long Beach. Why would we kill more jobs in the City of Long Beach? Why would the City counsel even consider affecting the profits of a good business in these times of economic turmoil.

Thank you

John C Goya
