115 Years of Service

MISSION Purpose

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated® was founded on a mission of five basic tenets that have remained unchanged since the sorority's inception. Our mission is

- to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards,
- to promote unity and friendship among college women,
- to study and help alleviate problems concerning girls and women in order to improve their social stature,
- to maintain a progressive interest in college life,
- and to be of "Service to All Mankind."

Danette Anthony Reed, International President

Danette Anthony Reed is the International President & CEO of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®. She is the 31st woman to lead the nation's first African American sorority for college-educated women. She comes to the position with more than 46 years of experience to lead the international organization.

The administration has six initiatives.

Strengthen Our Sisterhood will serve as the administration's "Foundation Initiative" as we strengthen our bonds to support our service mission.

Goals
