Hoo-ray, Hoo-ray to you two Ladies. Hello, Jennifer and Alisha. This is your neighbors. My husband Frederick (Ricky) shot his movie there last year. Remember us? Well, I have to tell you; for years I have had the desire to have church services there at your place of business and I underestimated you. Please forgive me. I didn't know if you'd allow it because you were a bar. Now, I see you are having just that, 'Church'. Your establishment will be blessed. You know we were praying for you from the start.

How I wish I had ask you about this 2 years ago. Well, "you snooze, you lose". Not really. God has another place for us but I do support others who are doing the LORDS WORK!!

I'll be over to fellowship with the new church.

God Bless you, Rev. Stephanie L. Randolph

I still can't thank you enough for allowing us to use your place for Fredericks Movie.

Its been a while since I have stepped into what use to be the infamous 'Live Bait.'
A Few weeks ago, a friend of mine had asked me randomly to stop by 'Gaslamp.'
That night I had already arranged plans to go to the Mai Tai Bar. Upon arrival, there was already a large line that accumulated at the door.

This Notice is to update you on the road work schedule along with changes that apply due to road work.

Trash pickup will be Monday, April 30th instead of Tuesday.

We will not start the designated 20 driveways until further notice so you can park your vehicle in your carport while the working is going on. Just remember you cannot go anywhere in your car between 7:00 am and 5:00 pm., on your designated day. There is also available parking in the marina parking lot (please do not park in the first two rows by the green fence) and also in the GasLamp Restaurant parking lot. The stairs will be available to the marina along side the clubhouse.

Please ignore advising the disposal company and mail service as the office has taken care of that. The guards will also have a map and directing traffic from the park entrance. Please remember to notify any handy people, caregivers, etc., of the schedule.

Any vehicles parked along side the clubhouse must be moved by Tuesday am or they may be towed.

We appreciate your patience and understanding during this time. If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to call the office.

Thank you,

John & Carolann Kniffen,

Managers

Subject : RE: Spirit of Zeppelin

Hello Gaslamp!

I was there on May 9th to see Spirit of Zeppelin and I wanted to make some comments.

First, I just love your ambiance. The way you have decorated the room is warm and inviting. The lighting is wonderful and cozy.

Secondly, your burger and beer combo on Wednesday nights is fabulous! What a great deal! I was there last month when Zeppelin played and I brought many friends with me this time because of the great food and to watch "Spirit".

Question... We sat to the right of the stage and found that the curtains hid the drummer totally. Therefore, in order to watch him play we had to leave our seats. It seems that perhaps the curtain could be pulled back a bit further so that the entire band could be seen. I have heard this comment from several people and not just with the band that played on the night we were there. If it is possible to pull the curtain back I would highly recommend it.

Another question...Would it be possible to post the bands that you have scheduled? I like to email my friends to get a big group to come and it helps when I can give info on the band.

Finally...You might want to update your web pages. You still have the March fashion show posting as well as conflicting info about what you do and on what nights. It's always good to have a site that reflects what is actually going on :-)

Again, terrific night Wednesday, great food, absolutely incredible band, hope your business is properous!

Carol

Alicia,

I want to thank you for the wonderful job by you and your staff for my daughter's wedding reception. Everything went so well and I would recommend your restaurant to anyone. It was unfortunate that so many people chose not to show up after responding that they would. I don't really want to know but...what is the final damage?

It is with much support I write this letter for the Gas Lamp in Long Beach.

I have been not only a very happy customer, but have worked with Alicia and Jennifer for the past two years in support of the positive image of their establishment.

I have been their primary "go-to" person for many special event-planning needs, which they have hosted. Some include my son's birthday parties, and my college student's last class meeting party, high school team parties, plus numerous other events sponsored by the Gas Lamp. Many of these events have been fund-raisers to support the wonderful organizations here in Long Beach. Alicia and Jen never say NO to anyone wanting their support for a local Long Beach charity.

Each and every time I have needed to consult with these two professional women one thing always was their priority...making their customers happy. Their attention to detail, concern for good food served in a safe environment is un-matched. Their friendly staff is one of the many things that make the Gas Lamp so very popular among their customers. MANY are return customers who bring all of their friends.

I plan to continue taking my family and friends there often and am planning Long Beach Poly's 40th reunion there this summer with the Elm Street Band. It is a grand venue for many Long Beach events.

How wonderful to have this entertaining establishment in our city. They add so much to drawing many to our town.

Gaslamp event raises $9,0

On Feb. 21, the community joined together at The Gaslamp Restaurant and Bar to raise more than $9,000 for the Long Beach Police Officers Association Widows and Orphans Fund.

The fund is being used to assist Long Beach Police Officers Roy Wade and Abe Yap and their families as they continue toward a full recovery after being shot downtown on Dec. 22. Proceeds from food and drink purchases and opportunity drawings were donated by the Gaslamp to the LBPOA Fund in the name of Officers Wade and Yap.

"Every day the men and women of the Long Beach Police Department do amazing things for the community they serve and our families. When we came up with the idea of trying to give just a little of that support back it was a clear choice," said Gaslamp owners Alicia Shelton and Jennifer McDonald. "They give us, our customers and the Long Beach community so much support, it's great to see the community come out and support them."

City officials came to lend their support to the cause.

"This event was a great opportunity to enjoy good food, music and conversation, while supporting a great cause," said 4th District Councilman Patrick O'Donnell.

Also seen at the event were 9th District Councilman Val Lerch, first lady Nancy Foster, Police Chief Anthony Batts, Ray Pok of 7th District Councilwoman Tonia Reyes Uranga's office and Anne Cramer of 3rd District Councilman Gary DeLong's office.

Diners were entertained by the Blue Steel Band, made up of members of the LBPd and volunteers.

"When officers are injured in the line of duty, a number of expenses are covered; however, there are many unforeseen costs that tear into the family budget. Events like the one held at The Gaslamp help meet those unexpected costs," said Lt. David Cannan of the Long Beach Police Department and Blue Steel Band.

Also seen at the scene were former Assistant Police Chief Ted Hulsey, Cmdr. Elizabeth Griffin, Lt. Dave Hendricks, Steve Folger, Art Levine, Doug and Freda Otto, Vern Schooley, Bernie Selmanson, Howell and Gretchen Poe, Tom Leary, Diane Ripley and John Hill.

Helping out at the event were two students from Wilson High School, Allison Goertz and Yoko Shintaku. They greeted guests, collected donations and organized the opportunity drawing.

Also among the supporters were many local businesses and organizations such as KMC Wheels (which donated a set of wheels), L.A. Dodgers, Musical Theater West, Long Beach Armada, Patty's Place of Seal Beach, McKenna's By the Bay, Schooner or Later, Mr. B's Restaurant and Body Solutions Fitness.

FYI: In addition to this event, the Gaslamp has hosted events for students at California Families in Focus, Cal State Long Beach, The Boys & Girls Club and numerous other nonprofit organizations.
