The poster is a vibrant collage celebrating Saint Patrick's Day. At the top, it reads "Saint Patrick's Day @ The Gaslamp" in a stylized font, with a Guinness can and a shamrock. Below this, a map of Ireland is shown with a large green shamrock overlaying it, containing the text "17th". To the right of the map, there's a section titled "Featuring" with the name "LEPERKHANZ" and four small portraits of the band members. Below the band names, there are logos for "the bleeding irish" (a shamrock with a blood splatter) and "H A U K" (the letters spaced out). At the bottom right is a logo for "Humble Hooligans" featuring a shamrock with the letters "H" and "H" inside. In the center, there's a section titled "Green Beer" and "St. Paddy's Giveaways". Below that, it says "Corned Beef & Cabbage". At the bottom, the website "www.LBPP.net" is displayed. The background of the poster is a mix of green, orange, and white, with various Irish-themed illustrations like a man in a top hat and a castle.
