Why is badge media needed?

- Per regulation, airports are required to establish and carry out a system which manages the access of personnel and prevents the unauthorized entry, presence and movement of individuals and ground vehicles within the following areas:
 - Secured Area
 - Air Operations Area (AOA)
 - Security Identification Display Area (SIDA)
 - Sterile Area

Area Definitions

- Secured Area – the area designated at an airport in which access is controlled by means of a system, method or procedure
- SIDA – this area includes the Secured Area and may include other areas of the airport
- Sterile Area – the area that provides passengers access to boarding aircraft and to which the access generally is controlled by TSA, air carriers, and the airport, through the screening of persons and property
- AOA – the area inside the perimeter fence, not to include the Secured Area, but does include aircraft movement areas

Types of Badge Media

- SIDA
 - Examples would be Airline Personnel and Airport Employees
- AOA
 - Examples would be Fixed Base Operators (FBOs) and Flight Schools
- Sterile Area
 - An example would be employees of concessionaires within the passenger concourse
