

Ranchos Walk

Sustainable City Commission

July 26, 2018

Ranchos Walk Urban Hike

- Saturday, September 8, 2018
- 8am start time at CSULB near Palo Verde Avenue
- Fee to Park
- Carpooling and alternative transportation encouraged
- California Pedestrian Safety Month

What is an Urban Hike?

- Urban environment
- Spirit of exploration
- Fitness
- Green spaces, vista points
- Distance

Organizers

- Office of Sustainability
- Public Works Transportation Programs (Mobility)
- Health & Human Services Healthy Active Long Beach Program
- Walk Long Beach

Partners

- Rancho Los Cerritos
- City of Signal Hill
- Cal State Long Beach
- LB Transit
- LB Water
- Historical Society of Long Beach
- Conservation Corps of Long Beach

Sponsors

- Port of Long Beach
- AARP
- Signal Hill Petroleum
- Energy Resources Department
- Development Services Department
- Others

The Route

- CSULB
- Park Estates
- Recreation Park
- Community Hospital
- Reservoir Hill
- National Guard Armory

The Route

- “Shell Hill”
- Alamitos No. 1 Well
- Hilltop Park
- Crescent Heights District
- Municipal Cemetery
- Longview Point at Willow Springs Park
- Home Depot Overlook

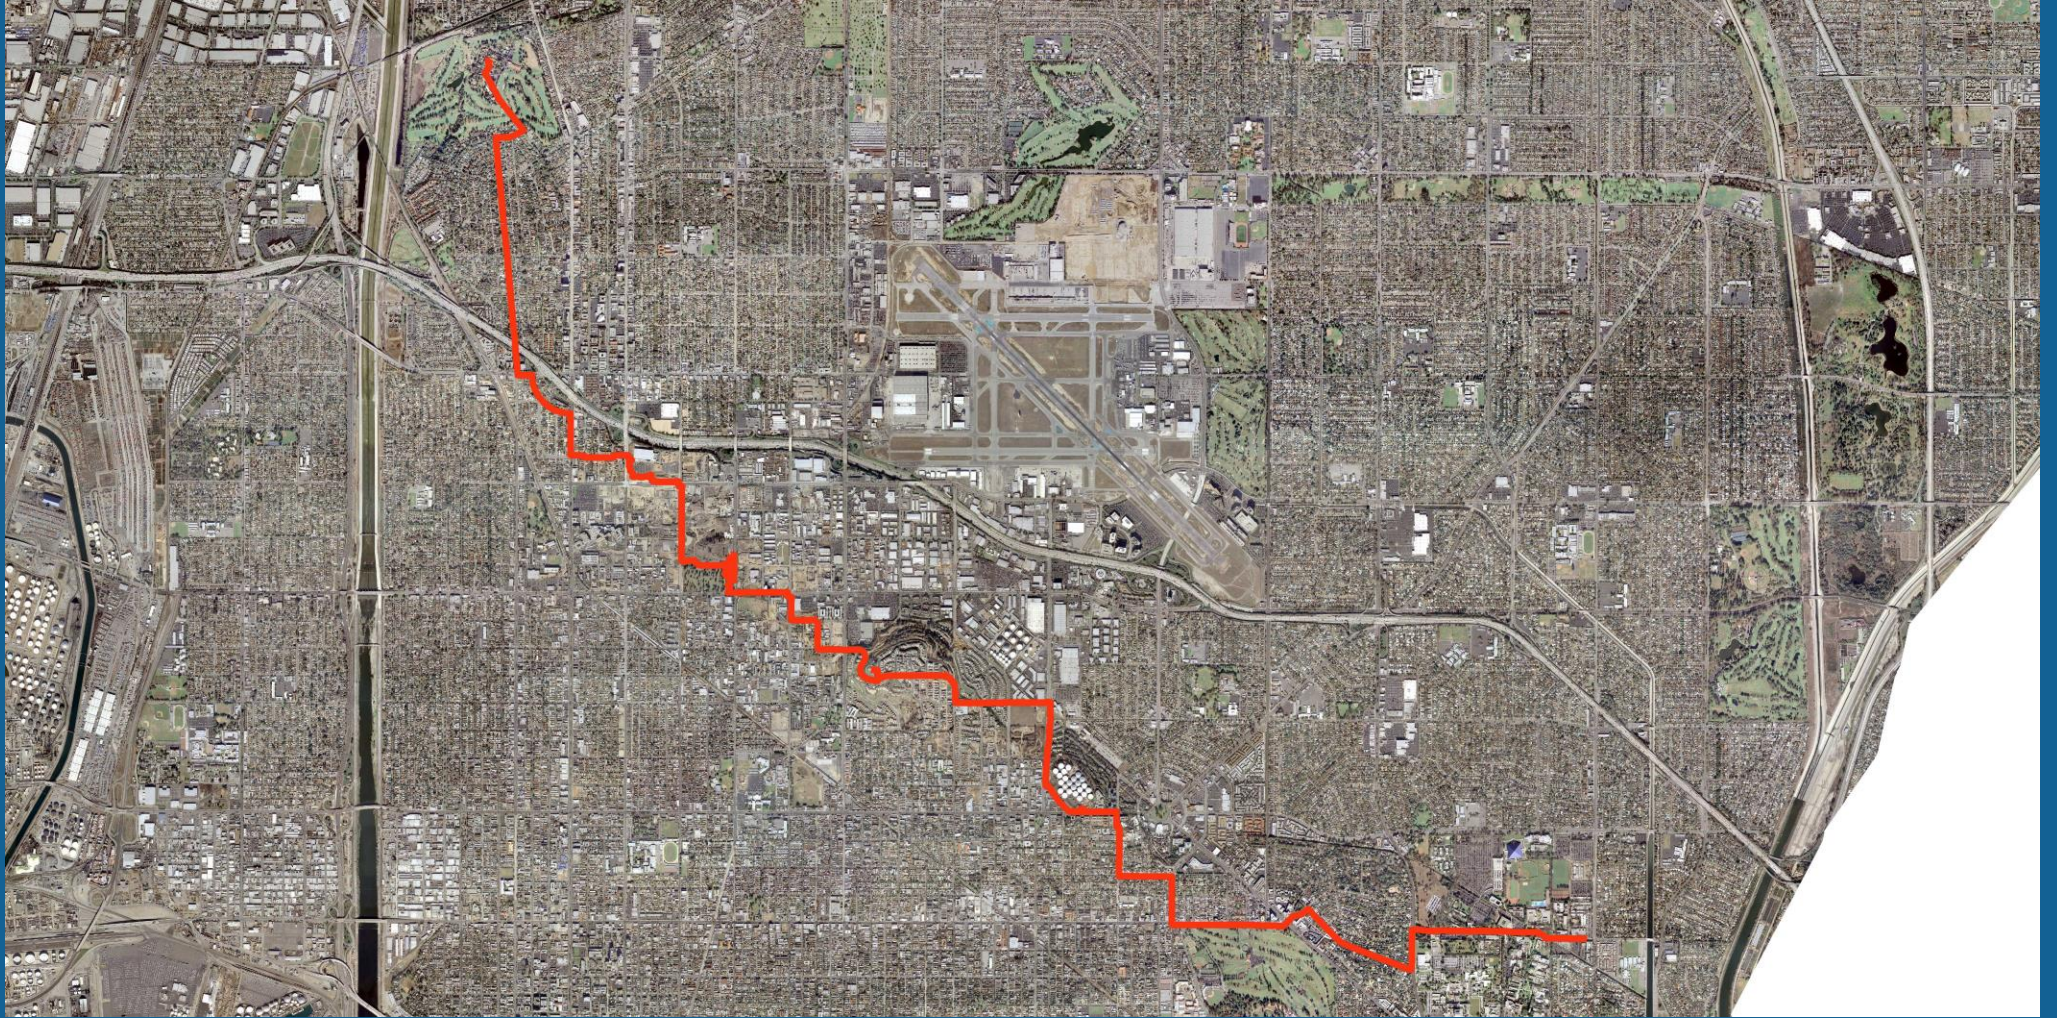

The Route

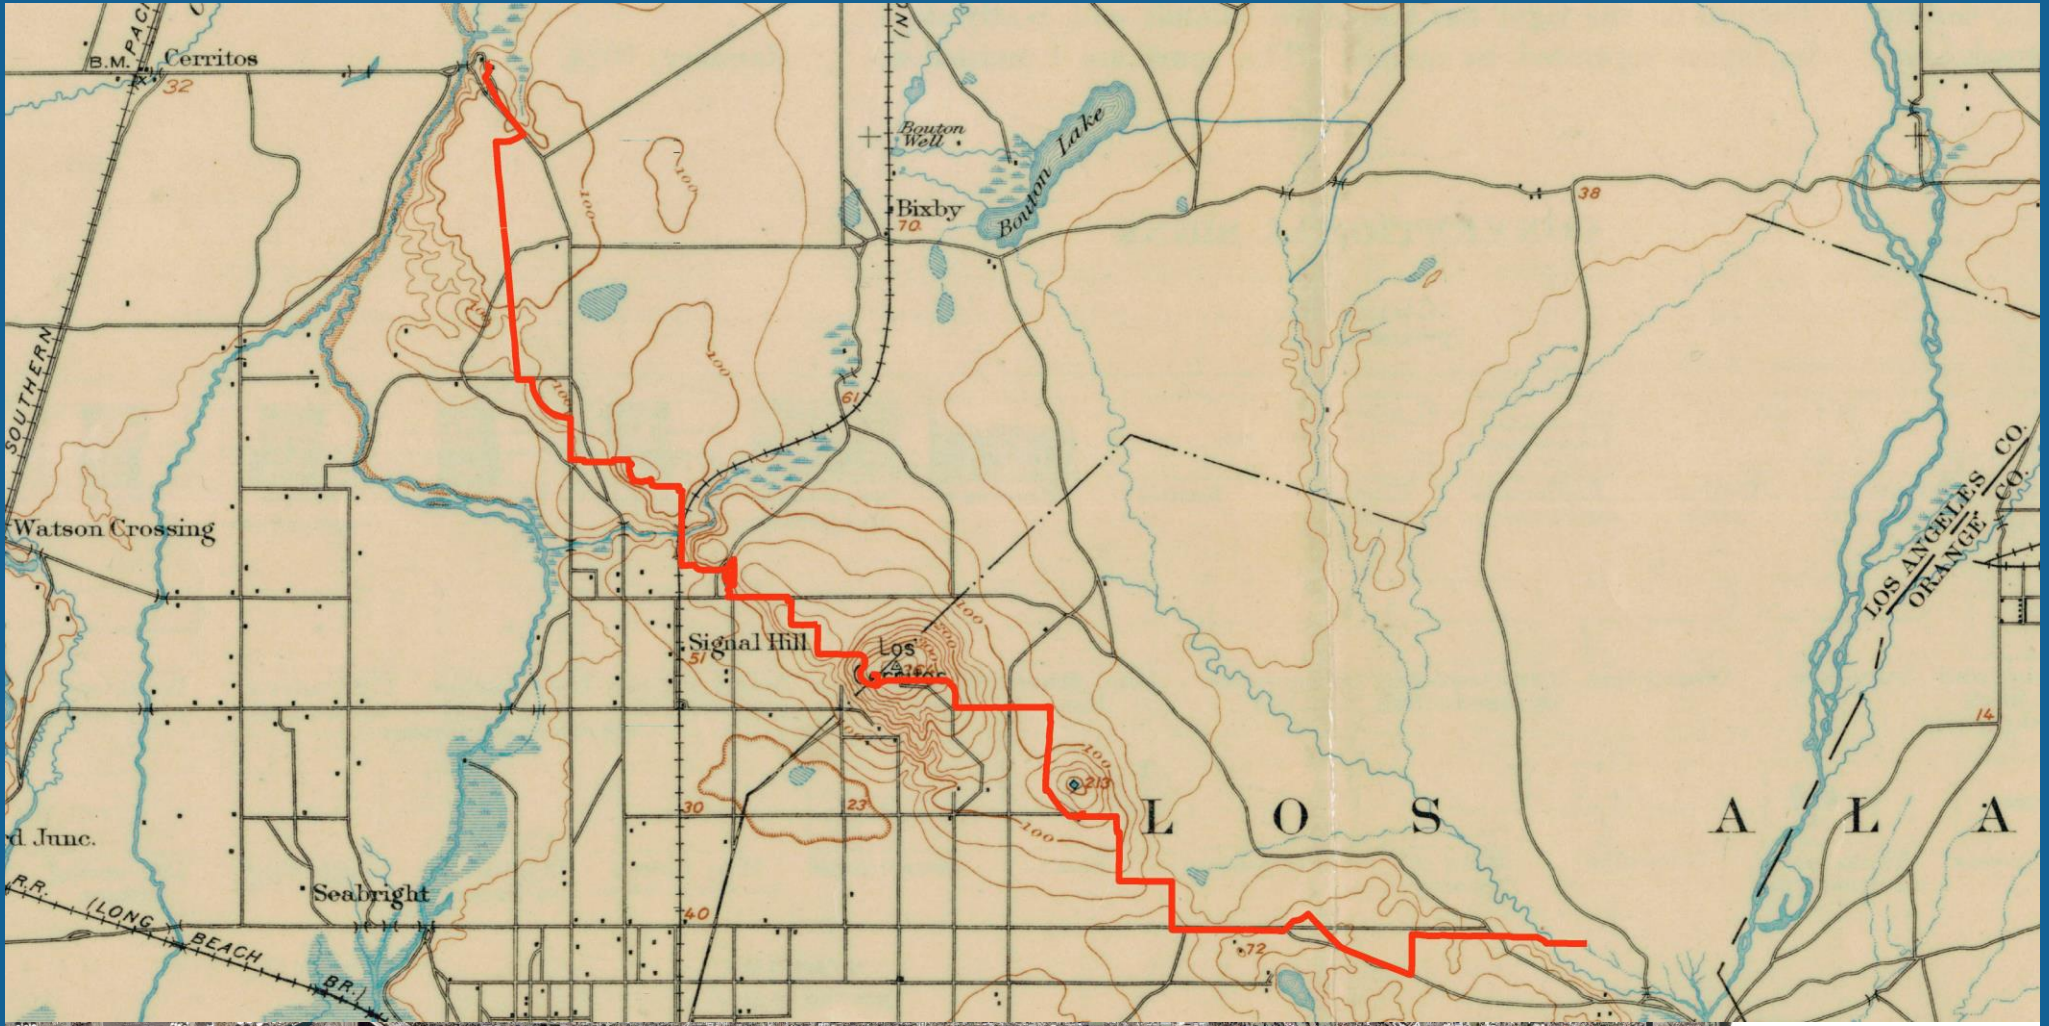

- Memorial Heights
- Los Cerritos Neighborhood
- Jennie Reeves House
- Virginia Country Club
- Rancho Los Cerritos

The Route

The Route

Who's ready to sign up?

- Registration portal underdevelopment
- No cost to register
- Will need a signed waiver
- Need a wristband to use LB Transit Shuttle
- Shorter route options will be available

Thank You!
Questions?