DISCUSSION OF 2020 GOALS AND EXPECTATIONS cont.

Discussion continued about ways to engage the public and better highlight both CACoD and the disability community and what tools and resources are available to commissioners to support those efforts . There was specific discussion about utilizing the media wall in the city hall lobby to highlight the 30th Anniversary of the Signing of the ADA in July 2020, as well as perhaps doing a presentation during Mayor Garcia's proclamation at City Council.

AGENCY REPORTS

Commissioner Swanson, who leads the steering committee for the LA Falls Prevention Coalition, shared that the coalition is hosting an ADA workshop specific to bathrooms in Pasadena later in February.

Commissioner Ceden, who sits on the LBUSD Community Advisory Committee, reported that she recently moderated a candidate's forum for LBUSD's school board vacancies. The election will be held on March 3.

Commissioner Adams reported that The Children's Clinic will now be called The Children's Clinic Family Health, given that a high number of patients served are adults. Commissioner Adams also reported that the clinic hopes to open its new facility soon in partnership with Mental Health America.

Commissioner Vuong shared that Tichenor Clinic will be hosting a carnival on Saturday, June 6th from 11-3 and encouraged CACoD to host an information table.

Commissioner McClain reported that she and Commissioner Vuong have been invited to speak to CSULB psychology students on February 20th regarding disability etiquette and attitudes. Commissioner McClain also reported she is working with Global Paratransit to do a series of disability sensitivity trainings for their drivers. Global Paratransit is the service provider for Access Services and LB Dial-A-Lift. Lastly, Commissioner McClain shared that every 2nd Friday of the month, the Disabled Resources Center holds their advocacy meetings from 2:00-4:00.
