Parcel One Improvements at Bixby Park

Bixby Parcel One includes a free-standing restroom, new irrigation system and landscaping.

A renovation of the north section of Bixby Park along Broadway Avenue was recently completed. The project included new pathways and ADA compliant crosswalks, lighting bollards, landscaping and planters, a new irrigation system, dog park drinking fountains and a new center area planter fountain.

The cost of the project was approximately $500,000 with funding source from Long Beach Measure A and contributions from the Friends of Bixby Park.

Bixby Park Development History

2014: Beginning in March 2014, residents and stakeholders began working with architects and Parks, Recreation and Marine staff to update the Bixby Park Master Plan, redesign the playground and prioritize funding needs.

2015: A pre-fabricated free-standing restroom, was constructed including architectural details and colored tiles consistent with the park and historic band shell.

2017: The first phase of renovations that were generated from the updated plan for Bixby Park was the Camp Bixby Playground and Fitness Loop completed in 2017.

The Camp Bixby playground features a 2- to 5-year-old play structure and a 5- to 12-year-old play structure with climbing components and slides, sand play areas, eight swings, a cable climber, two universal access slides, and an additional shaded seating area.

The fitness loop, located near Junipero Avenue and Ocean Boulevard includes a walking path with distance markers that connect six stations with fitness equipment. Construction will be completed before Labor Day weekend.

A Dog Park in the northwest section of the park opened in November 2017.

October 2020: Bixby Parcel One renovated

Brent Dennis, Director, Long Beach Parks, Recreation & Marine

Ah, the beauty and anticipation present in the month of November! During this time of year, we have so much to be thankful for, especially in 2020, as a community seeking the best ways to stay healthy, fit and safely engaged with friends and family. With Halloween now a distant memory, we turn our sights forward towards Thanksgiving. For all our team members serving the community through the department's Parks, Recreation, Marine and Animal Care Services' programs and services, we find ourselves motivated to make this season a very special one for our residents and those who visit Long Beach.

The evening of Thanksgiving heralds in the popular community tradition of "Trees in the Bay" where nearly 70 colorful, illuminated floating trees are installed in the waterways and park lakes across Long Beach. The display is in place through New Year's Day and lighted up each evening from 5:30 p.m. to midnight. A special thank you to our Marine Bureau team who devote time during the weeks leading up to Thanksgiving preparing and installing the trees that have a total of over 20,000 lights!

We are thankful for so many great community partners. The Conservation Corps will be working closely with our Parks Maintenance team to plant 400 new trees that were grant awarded to help beautify the west side of the city. Parks Maintenance Operations has shifted into the fall/winter mode with a focus on tree trimming and specialty park amenity improvements. Our department's collaborative partnership with Public Works will help realize an array of important capital improvement projects in the coming months.

Even during the challenges of the COVID era, our Community Recreation Services team has revved their creativity into high gear with more virtual youth programming along with an amazing Mobile REcess initiative where we provide physically distanced recreation activities out in underserved neighborhoods at ten different sites. I was excited to see the El Dorado Nature Center offer a reimagined native plant sale this month and found my trunk filled with a variety of perennials when I stopped by to support our staff and helpful volunteers during the sale that runs through November 21st.

Animal Care Services has many adorable animals looking for loving homes and caring individuals this month. Our ACS team has also been welcoming back volunteers to help assist them with many important animal care services and needs as we head into winter.

From all of us at PRM, we wish you and yours a happy and safe Thanksgiving!

Naturalist Notes

As summer fades into fall, and the sunlight becomes less, you may have wondered why certain trees start changing colors? Deciduous trees, or leaf droppers, are preparing for winter and they do it in the most amazing way. The leaves are triggered to stop making chlorophyll, which needs sunlight and takes up energy to produce food. The trees that are preparing for a winters nap need to store all the energy then can through the darker months. Once this happens, the green color will start to fade and other colors yellow (Xanthophylls), Orange (Carotenoids) and reds (Anthocyanins) will take over until the leaves fall off the tree. Look for the Liquid Amber and Chinese Pistache trees planted throughout the park, and watch as they put on their final show of the season.

Trees In the Bay Signal the Start of the Holiday Season

Unique to Long Beach during the holiday season, Trees in the Bay are lit from Thanksgiving weekend through the end of the year.

The annual installation of floating “Trees in the Bay” brings joy and smiles to residents during the holiday season.

In 1949, resident Don May placed a decorated Christmas tree on a raft and floated it out onto Alamitos Bay and started the tradition.

This year residents can enjoy lighted trees along the Peninsula, Alamitos Bay, Colorado Lagoon, Rainbow Lagoon, Rainbow Harbor, Belmont Pier, Spinnaker Bay, on 2nd Street medians, in lakes in Scherer and Heartwell Parks and at the El Dorado West Park duck pond.
