Date: September 16, 2004
To: Pamela Wilson Horgan, Manager, Commercial Services Bureau
From: Anthony W. Batts, Chief of Police
Subject: APPLICATION FOR ENTERTAINMENT WITHOUT DANCING AT THE ALIBI
SPORTS BAR – 2706 SOUTH STREET

The Police Department recommends DENIAL of the application for Entertainment Without Dancing permit at the Alibi Sports Bar, located at 2706 South Street. This recommendation is based on information discovered during an investigation conducted by the Vice Investigations Section, objections of the residents who live within 100 feet of the location, and a recommendation from North Division patrol.

BACKGROUND

The Alibi Sports Bar is located on the southeast corner of South Street and Paramount Avenue. The Alibi is a limited liability company, which was recently purchased by Katia Mannery, who is the sole owner. Prior to this, the Alibi was owned by Charles Westlund, who is the owner of Fantasy Ranch in Long Beach and Fantasy Castle in Signal Hill. On March 9, 2004, the City Council approved a type 48 (On Sale General Public Premises) Alcoholic Beverage license. On July 12, 2004, the Alibi applied for an entertainment permit, which includes dancing by performers only, live amplified music, a disk jockey, and karaoke.

CRIME ANALYSIS

As part of the investigation, detectives examined calls for service, reported crimes and arrests at the above location for a two-year period from July 12, 2002 to July 12, 2004. The report shows 9 calls for service, 3 reported crimes and zero arrests. Of the 9 calls for service there, four (4) were found to be attributable to the business. Of the 3 reported crimes, two (2) were found to be attributable to the business.

PATROL DIVISION INVESTIGATION

North Division Commander Frank McCoy was contacted for an opinion regarding the issuance of this permit. He advised that patrol has had many calls for service in the immediate area regarding drinking, fighting, intoxication, and disturbances of all types. He said the problems cannot all be directly traced back to the bar, however, it is well known that the source is either the Alibi or one of the other neighboring bars. Commander McCoy also advised that the bar is adjacent to several multi-family residential buildings. He said that an entertainment permit would be an immediate nuisance to surrounding residences, which would also lead to an increase in calls for service. Commander McCoy is opposed to the proposed entertainment permit.

VICE INVESTIGATION

Team Inspection Violations

On July 22, 2004, a Team Inspection was conducted. Vice detectives along with representatives from the Fire Department, Building and Planning, and the Health Department, met with Mike Magallanes, who is the manager of the Alibi. He said that the owner plans to have Samba dancers and Brazilian drummers. Vice detectives noted tables and chairs set up throughout the bar, two pool tables, and a small stage on the west side of the bar. Detectives noted there were 14 parking spaces available for patrons.

Undercover Police Investigations

As part of the investigation of this application, Vice detectives went to the location in an undercover capacity on Friday, September 3, 2004, about 2200 hours. Detectives noticed that the name of the bar had been changed to Aja's. Detectives observed about ten patrons inside the bar drinking and playing pool. There were no security guards and no entertainment. There were no violations observed.

On Wednesday, September 8, 2003, about 2230 hours, detectives observed about ten patrons in the bar drinking alcoholic beverages and playing pool. There were no patrons loitering in the parking lot, and there were no violations observed.

On Friday, September 10, 2004, about 2200 hours, detectives again responded to the bar. There was a security guard checking identifications at the door. Inside the bar, there were about ten patrons listening to background music. Several of them were drinking alcoholic beverages, and others were playing pool. There were no violations observed.

Resident Contacts

Vice detectives spoke to residents within 100 feet of the business. Detectives found that there were 17 residences within this distance. At the 17 residences, one resident was not opposed to the issuance of this permit. Eight residents voiced strong objections to the issuance of the entertainment permit. They cited the following reasons: loud music from the business, loud patrons drinking in the parking lot, fighting, excessive trash, and cars blocking the alleys. Eight residents were not home and letters were left at the door, asking them to contact us with their opinion. Several of these did call back with their opinions, which are included in the above figures.

Administrative Investigations

Vice detectives conducted a background check on Katia Mannery, the owner of the Alibi bar. Katia Mannery is an exotic dancer who worked for Charles Westlund at Fantasy Ranch. She danced under the stage name of Aja. On

Pamela Wilson-Horgan, Manager, Commercial Services Bureau

October 27, 2001, Katia Mannery was issued a citation for operating a strip club without a business license. She was operating an underground adult strip club with alcohol at a warehouse in Long Beach. The club was advertised as Aja's.

RECOMMENDATION

Given the Vice Section and the North Division's investigations, coupled with the opposition from local residents, the Police Department is unable to find that the public peace, safety and welfare will not be impaired if this permit is granted. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 5.72.120(d) LBMC, the Police Department recommends that a permit for Entertainment Without Dancing at this location be DENIED.
