

Citizen Technology Advisory Committee

TECHNOLOGY & INNOVATION DEPARTMENT

BRYAN M. SASTOKAS, CIO

CTAC Charter

The Citizen Technology Advisory Committee (CTAC) was established in September 2004. The following is an overview of their Charter.

- ▶ Committee Purpose
 - ▶ Identify and apply new information and communications technology to improve service delivery to both City departments and the public.

CTAC Charter

The Citizen Technology Advisory Committee (CTAC) was established in September 2004. The following is an overview of their Charter.

- ▶ Committee Scope
 - ▶ Review and comment on current technology and service approaches.
 - ▶ Provide feedback on technology plans.
 - ▶ Assist staff by exploring feasibility of new technology and advice on potential benefits.
 - ▶ Serve as informed communicators to other in the community of current policies, activities, and plans of the City's Technology and Innovation Department.

CTAC Charter

The Citizen Technology Advisory Committee (CTAC) was established in September 2004. The following is an overview of their Charter.

- ▶ Committee Membership
 - ▶ Marilyn Bohl
 - ▶ Curt Gibbs
 - ▶ Brian Jackson
 - ▶ Carol Jacoby
 - ▶ Jerry Jacoby
 - ▶ Mat Kaplan
 - ▶ Kristine MacRae
 - ▶ Len Simon
 - ▶ Arline Walter

CTAC Charter

The Citizen Technology Advisory Committee (CTAC) was established in September 2004. The following is an overview of their Charter.

- ▶ Committee Approach
 - ▶ Committee / TID identify technology areas to examine.
 - ▶ Staff Presentations
 - ▶ Questions / Answers / Discussion
 - ▶ Recap and solicitations of recommendations
 - ▶ CTAC members are precluded from doing related business with the City
 - ▶ Meet Quarterly

Citizen Technology Advisory Committee

TECHNOLOGY & INNOVATION DEPARTMENT

BRYAN M. SASTOKAS, CIO