SERVING THE HOMELESS RUNAWAY YOUTH

PROVIDING THE YOUTH WITH GATEWAYS TO REHABILITATION

Hamlet for the Homeless is a nonprofit organization serving homeless, runaway youth. Utilizing the study, rehearsal and presentation of Shakespeare as gateways to rehabilitation and stabilization through theatre, Hamlet for the Homeless seeks to provide structure, purpose, safety and increased self-esteem to children who struggle to survive on the streets.

It is our goal to raise funds for supplies not only for performances but also for the personal needs of these homeless runaway youth including toiletries, winter clothing, shoes, and other much needed comfort items. In addition to these core directives, Hamlet for the Homeless will offer assistance to youth who wish to apply for state, federal, and privately operated social welfare programs.
