

INVEST | SPONSOR | SUPPORT

We are excited to invite you to be part of the 2021 Long Beach Juneteenth Celebration, a project which we believe is completely aligned with your values and mission. We are excited to bring this year's event to Historic Pine Avenue in Downtown Long Beach, which will be filled with music, poetry, dance, and community, and will set a standard of excellence for events of its kind. It will also activate a downtown that has struggled under the strain of COVID-19 restrictions and bring restoration after the protests that followed the killing of George Floyd.

The events since George Floyd's death have been a vivid reminder of the depths of systemic racism in our country.

As the majority of people in the United States and all over the world come to acknowledge that racism has deep roots in our history, advocates and allies are more important than ever.

Collectively, we must be intentional about elevating faces, voices, events and causes that celebrate African Americans in this country. The Long Beach Juneteenth Celebration offers the perfect opportunity to celebrate, educate, and commemorate the ending slavery in the United States. We hope that you partner with us to bring an unforgettable event to life in our city!

Sincerely,

ABOUT

Juneteenth is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. Dating back to 1865, it was on June 19th that the Union soldiers, led by Major General Gordon Granger, landed at Galveston, Texas, with news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Note that this was two and a half years after President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, which had become official on January 1, 1863.

The Emancipation Proclamation had little impact on the Texans due to the minimal number of Union troops to enforce the new executive order. However, with the surrender of General Lee in April of 1865 and the arrival of General Granger's regiment, the forces were finally strong enough to influence and overcome the resistance.

JUNETEENTH NOW CELEBRATES AFRICAN AMERICAN FREEDOM AND ACHIEVEMENT WHILE ENCOURAGING CONTINUOUS SELF-DEVELOPMENT AND RESPECT FOR ALL CULTURES.

Today, we are proud that Long Beach will put together its biggest Juneteenth celebration yet.

We invite you to get involved and support Juneteenth by participating in this epic event.
