About Us

His Little Feet is a 501 (c) (3) tax exempt shoe charity. His Little Feet (HLF) empowers under-resourced students by opening doors to extracurricular athletic programs, mentoring relationships, and healthy peer relationships at school. Through relationships with partnering organizations, shelters, temporary housing, and foster care systems, HLF provides Southern California students in need with new athletic shoes required by athletic programs and school dress code.

We depend on community support from organizations to continue supporting preschool, elementary, junior high and high school students.

Our Mission

Our mission is to share God's love, uplifting under-priveleged youth with a new pair of socks and sneakers!

Our Vision

Our vision is to build confidence in children facing homelessness with a pair of socks and new shoes. New shoes gives hope for a new tomorrow and enables children to dream of a better life through education, after school activities and sports.

Help A Child Thrive

Your support will provide shoes, bring hope and restore dignity to children in need. Children who are in proper fitting shoes have a significantly increased self-esteem, directly resulting in improved school attendance and better grades.

Your tax deductible donation of new socks, shoes, school uniforms and financial support will help thousands of children improve their confidence and thrive in today's scholastic environment.
