23 notice to quit or other eviction notice, or bring any action to recover 24 possession of a rental housing unit, based upon facts which owner has no 25 reasonable cause to believe to be true or upon a legal theory which is 26 untenable under the facts known to owner.

8 tenant protection laws that do not require such plans.

11 usual practice of the parties, or in a notice to pay rent or quit; (ii) refuse to 12 cash or process a rent check or other form of acceptable rent payment for 13 over thirty (30) days after it is tendered; or (iii) fail to maintain a current 14 address for delivery of rent payments.

19 information for the qualifications for a tenancy; (ii) release such information 20 except as required or authorized by law; or (iii) request or demand an 21 unreasonable amount of information from tenant in response to a request 22 for reasonable accommodation.

23 K. Acting in bad faith, communicate with a tenant in a language
24 other than the tenant's primary language for the purpose of intimidating, 25 confusing, deceiving or annoying the tenant.

26 L. Interfere with the right of tenants to organize as tenants and 27 engage in concerted activities with other tenants for the purpose of mutual 28 aid and protection; deny property access to tenant organizers, advocates,

1 or representatives working with or on behalf of tenants living at a property;
