Mar. 8, 2013

My family and I were going to the park. My mom was driving I said to the police in the motorcycle, "Hi Police!" He said "Hi." It was green light. My mom heard a "prrrt!" It was the motorcycle police. He said he stopped us because the window was falling off, that the door wasn't closed, that I was supposed to be in a seat chair, and that why was there a bicycle. So he was just looking for an excuse of why he stopped us. Then last of all he said "Do you have a license?" Mom responded, "No." He said that if she had it at home. But then he gave up he said he was going to take away the car because my mom didn't have licence. My mom told him that if he was not going to give the car to her then to give it to Andi (mom's friend). He didn't give it to her. We had a lot of stuff in the car and he wouldn't even let us take it to our house. I was crying because I felt really sad that they had taken my car away. From then on I'm really scared of polices in motorcycles.

Love,
Leslie

- I felt really sad.
- When I see him I feel like mad/sad.
- Sometimes we used to walk from school to home it took us 40 mins.
- We used to get a lot of sunburns and when we walked in rainy days we used to get all wet.
