

Welcome to the Pacific Island Ethnic Art Museum (PIEAM)

When you visit the museum, you'll see

Ethnic arts and living arts from all regions of Oceania: Micronesia, Polynesia and Melanesia

Rotating exhibits

Community-driven exhibits

Educational programs

Museum store

Media room

Sculpture garden

Cultural events

Family art programs

Event rental

Hours

Wednesday – Sunday, 11am – 5pm

Admission

$5 General

$3 Students with ID and Seniors

Free for PIEAM members and children under 12

1st Annual Pasifika Living Arts

May 7-8, 2011

Pacific Island Ethnic Art Museum
695 Alamitos Ave, Long Beach, CA 90802

Featuring workshops and performances by traditional artists and cultural specialists from across Pasifika's diverse cultures

For more info
www.PIEAM.org 562.216.4170
info@pieam.org

Thanks in part to RGE

PIEAM molaa.org

PIEAM molaa.org

PIEAM molaa.org

PIEAM

PACIFIC ISLAND ETHNIC ART MUSEUM

Directions

The Pacific Island Ethnic Art Museum (PIEAM) is located at 695 Alamitos Avenue on the triangle between East 7th Street, Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue (MLK Ave.) and Alamitos Avenue.

The main entrance faces Alamitos Avenue just south of 7th Street.

The double doors have a painted Dilukai figure directly above them.

Parking

PIEAM parking is FREE at MOLAA's parking lot, 628 Alamitos Avenue.

Contact Us

695 Alamitos Avenue
Long Beach, California 90802

t: 562-216-4170 f: 562-435-3052
info@pieam.org www.pieam.org

in Celebration of

Pacific Islander Heritage Month

For the month of May, PIEAM is proud to offer:

Free admission to museum when you sign-up for our mailing list

Spread the heritage with 2 for 1 membership purchases ultimate levels and below (not valid with previous purchases)

For more info contact us at:
www.pieam.org info@pieam.org 562.216.4170

