

MEOW!

NOW THAT I HAVE YOUR ATTENTION...

Greetings and salutations from my kingdom of Wackivainia, of which I am from. Allow me to introduce myself. I am Her Royal Imperial Wackiness, Queen Whimsical Wendy, Princess of perculiarity, Countess of confusion, Grand Duchess of Dementia, Daughter of the Royal House of Insanity and I have come to Earth to teach the youth of Long Beach the importance of communication in the form of Sign Language on my show, Whimsical Wendy's Wonderful world of Sign. This invaluable skill has the potential of bridging the gap between the hearing impaired and those blessed with the ability to hear. Also, I implore you to think about the extra revenue the city will be able to tap into once would-be sales clerks learn Sign Language. The Deaf Community will be flocking to shopping malls, Doctor's offices, Ect. ,Ect. Ect. to purchase items and services vital to everyday living. So, Please save Community television. You'll be throwing away a golden opportunity for the golden state to lead the nation in eliminating the "Communication deficit."
