TECHNOLOGY & INNOVATION COMMISSION (TIC) POTENTIAL TOPICS FOR 2022

These are potential projects and initiatives which TIC could be engaged, informed and/or consulted in 2022 and beyond.

- Digital Inclusion Roadmap Implementation
    - Periodic updates to the Commission
    - Two to three members serve on Digital Inclusion Roadmap Implementation Committee.

- Smart City Initiative Outreach and Implementation
    - Periodic updates to the Commission
    - Assist with Civic User Testing of public facing technology projects
    - Assistance with participant identification and general planning for Community Technology Program
    - Two to three members to assist with planning and executing Smart City Initiative event at September 2022 WWT event.
    - Two to three members to assist with planning and executing "Community Tech Festival"

- Data Privacy Guidelines Implementation and Accountability
    - Assistance with Implementation Plan components (including but not limited to Surveillance Ordinance, Privacy Impact Assessment template, Proposed Use Policy template, etc.)

- Racial Equity and Reconciliation Action Items
    - Periodic updates to the Commission
    - Assistance with and review of TID's forthcoming Racial Equity Action Plan
    - Other items or presentations as needed

- What Works Cities Silver Certification Achievements
    - Open Data portal presentation and brainstorming of high value data sets
    - Presentation on new procurement approach (Extreme Makeover) and new Procurement System (Long Beach Buys)
    - Other items or presentations as needed

- Joint meeting with Economic Development Commission
  - Potential topics to include digital inclusion, data and tools to aid in small business development and address equity or at risk businesses, building a local tech ecosystem, economic recovery plan, or other topics to be agreed to between chairs of commissions

- New /Emerging Technologies research
  - Research and best practices in the areas of blockchain, AR/VR, chat bots, AI etc. and their uses in city government and the community at large
  - Inviting technology and innovation subject matter experts to present to the Commission and participating City staff
  - Community acceptance testing for Advanced Air Mobility (AAM)

- 2030 Strategic Vision
  - Review of technology components in the 2030 Strategic Vision
  - Support with TID 2025 planning and community outreach

- Periodic presentations on public facing technology projects such as the Single Sign on pilot
  - Review of design/functionality
  - Assist with Civic User Testing
  - Evaluation and recommendation on outreach plans