STATE OF CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS DIVISION OF LABOR STANDARDS ENFORCEMENT

CERTIFICATION OF SERVICE BY MAIL (C.C.P. 1013A) OR CERTIFIED MAIL

I, Gilberto Rosado, Jr. , do hereby certify that I am a resident of or employed in the County of Los Angeles , over 18 years of age, not a party to the within action, and that I am employed at and my business address is:
LABOR COMMISSIONER, STATE OF CALIFORNIA 300 Oceangate, Suite 302 Long Beach, CA 90802 Tel: (562) 590-5048 Fax: (562) 499-6467
I am readily familiar with the business practice of my place of business for collection and processing of correspondence for mailing with the United States Postal Service. Correspondence so collected and processed is deposited with the United States Postal Service that same day in the ordinary course of business. On October 19, 2017 at my place of business, a copy of the following document(s):
Order, Decision or Award was(were) placed for deposit in the United States Postal Service in a sealed envelope, by first class mail , with postage fully prepaid, addressed to:
NOTICE TO: REYES CASTELLANOS 7732 BRIGHT AVENUE WHITTIER, CA 90602 and that envelope was placed for collection and mailing on that date following ordinary business practices.
I certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
Executed on: October 19, 2017 at Long Beach, California STATE CASE NUMBER: 05-68322 KR Gilberto Rosado, Jr. Gilberto Rosado, Jr.

Plaintiff: REYES CASTELLANOS Defendant: K&R TRANSPORTATION, LLC A CALIFORNIA LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY	LABOR COMMISSIONER, STATE OF CALIFORNIA Department of Industrial Relations Division of Labor Standards Enforcement 300 Oceangate, Suite 302 Long Beach, CA 90802 Tel: (562) 590-5048 Fax: (562) 499-6467			F	For Court Use Only:
Defendant: K&R TRANSPORTATION, LLC A CALIFORNIA LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY State Case Number ORDER, DECISION OR AWARD OF THE LABOR COMMISSIONER ORDER, DECISION OR AWARD OF THE LABOR COMMISSIONER I. The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before the Labor Commissioner of the State of California as follows: DATE: July 5, 2017 CONTINUED TO: CITY: 300 Oceangate, Suite 302, Long Beach, CA 90802 2. ITIS ORDERED THAT: Plaintiff recover from Defendant. $ 86,968.53 for wages and/or sick leave (with lawful deductions) $ 4,171.42 for liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194.2 $ 9,081.11 $ embursable business expenses for interest pursuant to Labor Code Section 98.1(c), 248.5 (f), 1194.2 and/or 2802(b), for additional wages accrued pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ 3,262.50 other (specify): attorney's fees $ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first chass mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) days of service of this document may fill the personal delivery to the appeal and the appropriate court, the corporation must be represented in any subs	Plaintiff:	REYES (CASTELLANOS
State Case Number 05 - 68322 KR 1. The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before the Labor Commissioner of the State of California as follows: DATE: July $, 2017 CITY: 300 Oceangate, Suite 302, Long Beach, CA 90802 2. ITIS ORDERED THAT: Plaintiff recover from Defendant. $ 86,968.53 for wages and/or sick leave (with lawful deductions) $ 4,171.42 for liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194.2 $ 9,081.11 Reimbursable business expenses $ 2,855.61 for interest pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court, with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) appeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (Sec Co Civil Procodure Section (103). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant must immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Conscioured state if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court shall be costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other parties that as a con	_ ·	•	``````````````````````````````````````	C	Court Number
1. The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before the Labor Commissioner of the State of California as follows: DATE: July 5, 2017			•	ORNIA
DATE: July 5, 2017 CITY: 300 Oceangate, Suite 302, Long Beach, CA 90802 2. IT IS ORDERED THAT: Plaintiff recover from Defendant. $ 86,968.53 for wages and/or sick leave (with lawful deductions) $ 4,171.42 for liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194.2 $ 9,081.11 Reimbursable business expenses $ 2,855.61 for interest pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ 0.00 for additional wages accrued pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant mu immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, be the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Cosection 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by fili	1		ORDER, DECISION OR AV	WARD OF TH	HE LABOR COMMISSIONER
$ 4,171.42 $ 9,081.11 $ for liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code Section 1194.2 $ 9,081.11 $ continued to Labor Code Section (s) 98.1(c), 248.5 (f), 1194.2 and/or 2802(b), $ 0,00 $ for additional wages accrued pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ for penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203.1 which shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by person delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant mu immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, be the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal	DATE: Ju CITY: 300	ily 5, 201) Oceang	7 CONTIgate, Suite 302, Long Beach, CA	NUED TO: 90802	ine State of Camornia as Tollows.
Reimbursable business expenses $ 2,855.61 for interest pursuant to Labor Code Section(s) 98.1(c), 248.5 (f), 1194.2 and/or 2802(b), $ 0,00 for additional wages accrued pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ for penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203.1 which shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) days of service Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant mu immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, but the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party file the appeal of successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) req	$ 86	,968.53	for wages and/or sick leave (with law)	ful deductions	s)
$ 2,855.61 for interest pursuant to Labor Code Section(s) 98.1(c), 248.5 (f), 1194.2 and/or 2802(b), $ 0,00 for additional wages accrued pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ 106,339.17 other (specify): attorney's fees $ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant main immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, be the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Coection 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court he party filing the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party filing the appeal. An employer shall provide written notice to the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the employer shall provide wri	$4	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
for additional wages accrued pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. for penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203.1 which shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. 3,262.50 other (specify): attorney's fees 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant mu immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, be the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party filing the appeal. An employee is successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero.	$ 9	$ 9,081.11 Reimbursable business expenses
for additional wages accrued pursuant to Labor Code Section 203 as a penalty and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. for penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203.1 which shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD TOTAL amount of Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant mu immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, be the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party filing the appeal. An employee is successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) requires that as	s 2	,855.61	for interest pursuant to Labor Code Secti	ion(s) 98.1(c), 248	8.5 (f), 1194.2 and/or 2802(b), for penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203.1 which shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions. $ 3,262.50 other (specify): attorney's fees $ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by person delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant mu immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, but the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party filing the appeal. An employee is successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) requires that as a condition to filing an appeal of an Order, Decision Award of the Labor Com	· ·		Constitution of the Control of the C
$ 3,262.50 other (specify): attorney's fees $ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by person delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant mu immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, but the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party filing the appeal. An employee is successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) requires that as a condition to filing an appeal of an Order, Decision Award of the Labor Commissioner, the employer shall first post a bond or undertaking with the court in the amount of the ODA; at the e	*	and that same shall not be subject to payroll or other deductions.
$ 106,339.17 TOTAL AMOUNT OF AWARD 3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant mu immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, be the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co-Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party filing the appeal. An employee is successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) requires that as a condition to filing an appeal of an Order, Decision Award of the Labor Commissioner, the employer shall first post a bond or undertaking with the court in the amount of the ODA; at the employer shall provide written notice to the o		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
3. The herein Order, Decision or Award is based upon the Findings of Fact, Legal Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto a incorporated herein by reference. 4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant multimmediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon to party filing the appeal. An employee is successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) requires that as a condition to filing an appeal of an Order, Decision Award of the Labor Commissioner, the employer shall first post a bond or undertaking with the court in the amount of the ODA; at the employer shall provide written notice to the other parties and the Labor Commissioner of the posting of the undertaking. Lab Code Section 98.2(b) also requires the undertaking contain other specific conditions for d	•
4. The parties herein are notified and advised that this Order, Decision or Award of the Labor Commissioner shall become final a enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) d appeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant multimmediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Co Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court shadetermine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party filing the appeal. An employee is successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) requires that as a condition to filing an appeal of an Order, Decision Award of the Labor Commissioner, the employer shall first post a bond or undertaking with the court in the amount of the ODA; at the employer shall provide written notice to the other parties and the Labor Commissioner of the posting of the undertaking. Lab Code Section 98.2(b) also requires the undertaking contain other specific conditions for distribution under the bond. While this claif is before the Labor Commissioner, you are required to notify the Labor Commissioner in writing of any changes in				ngs of Fact Lear	al Analysis and Construions attached hereto and enforceable as a judgment in a court of law unless either or both parties exercise their right to appeal to the appropriate court* with ten (10) days of service of this document. Service of this document can be accomplished either by first class mail or by persor delivery and is effective upon mailing or at the time of personal delivery. If service on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) dappeal period shall be extended by five (5) days. For parties served outside of California, the period of extension is longer (See Co of Civil Procedure Section 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary filing fee must be paid by the appellant and appellant must immediately upon filing an appeal with the appropriate court, serve a copy of the appeal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If appeal is filed by a corporation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporation may file the Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, by the corporation must be represented in any subsequent trial by an attorney, licensed to practice in the State of California. Labor Cook Section 98.2(c) provides that if the party seeking review by filing an appeal to the court is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court she determine the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the other party to the appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the party filing the appeal. An employee is successful if the court awards an amount greater than zero. PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) requires that as a condition to filing an appeal of an Order, Decision Award of the Labor Commissioner, the employer shall first post a bond or undertaking with the court in the amount of the ODA; at the employer shall provide written notice to the other parties and the Labor Commissioner of the posting of the undertaking. Lab Code Section 98.2(b) also requires the undertaking contain other specific conditions for distribution under the bond. While this clair is before the Labor Commissioner, you are required to notify the Labor Commissioner in writing of any chan				ngs of ract, Lega	at Analysis and Conclusions attached hereto and
Gov. George Deukmejian Courthouse	enforceable as a ten (10) days of delivery and is appeal period shoof Civil Proced immediately upgappeal is filed by the corporation of Section 98.2(c) determine the corporation of the Latte employer shoof Section 98 is before the Latpersonal address Gov. George De	judgment f service o effective u all be exte ure Sectio on filing ar y a corpor must be re provides th ests and rea ppeal. Ar E NOTIC bor Comm all provide .2(b) also or Comm within 10 ukmejian	in a court of law unless either or both part of this document. Service of this document point mailing or at the time of personal dended by five (5) days. For parties served in 1013). In case of appeal, the necessary appeal with the appropriate court, serve ation, a non-lawyer agent of the corporate presented in any subsequent trial by an attend if the party seeking review by filing an assonable attorney's fees incurred by the orange is successful if the court award E: Labor Code Section 98.2(b) requires hissioner, the employer shall first post a be written notice to the other parties and the requires the undertaking contain other species incurred to notify the Ladays after any change occurs.	arties exercise their ent can be accomplivery. If service to outside of Califory filing fee must a copy of the apption may file the storney, licensed to appeal to the conther party to the adds an amount great that as a condition or undertaking Labor Commissione La	ir right to appeal to the appropriate court* within applished either by first class mail or by personal to on the parties is made by mail, the ten (10) day brain, the period of extension is longer (See Code at be paid by the appellant and appellant must, peal request upon the Labor Commissioner. If an Notice of Appeal with the appropriate court, but to practice in the State of California. Labor Code part is unsuccessful in such appeal, the court shall appeal and assess such amount as a cost upon the atter than zero. In the amount of the ODA; and the court in the amount of the ODA; and sesioner of the posting of the undertaking. Labor for distribution under the bond. While this claim ther in writing of any changes in your business or MISSIONER, STATE OF CALIFORNIA
Long Beach South District 275 Magnolia Ave. Long Beach, CA 90802 BY: Waw Chun HEARING OFFICER	275 Magnolia A	ve.		BY: Wa	WITH THE ARRIVE OFFICER

DATED: October 17, 2017

LABOR COMMISSIONER, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Department of Industrial Relations

Division of Labor Standards Enforcement

300 Oceangate, Suite 302 Long Beach, CA 90802

Tel: (562) 590-5048 Fax: (562) 499-6467

Plaintiff:

REYES CASTELLANOS

Defendant: K&R TRANSPORTATION, LLC A CALIFORNIA LIMITED

LIABILITY COMPANY

State Case Number 05 - 68322 KR

NOTICE OF PAYMENT DUE

You have been served a copy of the Labor Commissioner's Order, Decision or Award.

If the full amount of the sums set forth in the Order, Decision or Award is received by this office within ten (10) days of the date the Order, Decision or Award was served upon you, no judgment will be entered in this matter.

Payment must be made by certified check, cashier's check or money order (no other tender will be accepted) made payable to the Plaintiff named in the Order, Decision or Award, and addressed to the Office of the Labor Commissioner at the address shown above.

DATED: October 17, 2017

Karen Ramos

Karen Ramos 562-590-5459

Deputy Labor Commissioner