4. Public Comment.

Chair Clemson read a public comment from Frances Emily Dawson Harris, a member of the public.

Ms. Dawson Harris supports the proposed reduced fares. She asked LBT to consider a fare for customers with a disability, similar to the fare charged by LBT's Dial A Lift and Access services.

Ms. Dawson Harris thanked LBT for the suspension of fare collection during the COVID 19 pandemic.

Ms. Dawson Harris suggested Dial A Lift vans with adequate floor space to secure two wheelchairs. She also suggested updates to several of LBT's disability signage on buses currently.

Ms. Dawson Harris asked LBT to consider supporting mandatory ADA Blue Loading Zones for the safety of customers needing extra time to board.

Chair Clemson read a public comment from Lili Ye, a member of the public.

Ms. Ye had concerns regarding the COVID-19 service cuts, lack of evening service and when service is expected to return to normal.

Ms. Ye stated that the LBT imposed curfew is too early and would like the public to be informed of when service will be restored.

5. President and CEO Report. (Kenneth McDonald)

INFORMATION ITEM

Kenneth McDonald, President and CEO, presented his monthly report.

On Friday, May 28, LBT welcomed customers to highlight the return of Aqualink, LBT and the Long Beach Convention and Visitor's Bureau held a press event at the AquaLink dock.

CEO McDonald thanked Chair Clemson and Secretary/Treasurer Bentley for attending the press event.

The service will be free of charge through July 4 to encourage residents and visitors to get reacquainted with their community.

CEO McDonald thanked the Long Beach Convention & Visitors Bureau for their sponsorship

CEO McDonald stated that it was a great pleasure to work with Steve Goodling, President and CEO of the Long Beach Convention & Visitors Bureau.

Steve and his staff are always instrumental in growing the City of Long Beach.

Service began Memorial Day Weekend and will operate Friday, Saturday and Sunday, from 11:30 a.m. to 7 p.m.

AquaBus remains on hiatus for a little while longer.

The AquaLink will operate between Alamitos Bay and the Aquarium of the Pacific Dock.

To remain socially distant, capacity will be limited to 40 customers on a first-come basis.

Masks are required on board all AquaLink boats

Schedules are posted at the dock and online with boats departing every 90 minutes.

CEO McDonald is pleased to bring AquaLink back to our customers.

This is truly a sign that the communities we serve are opening up and Long Beach is welcoming visitors once again.

CEO McDonald stated that the state reopened on June 15, 2021, LBT's Managers and Executive Leadership Team, have held multiple meetings to for the return of fare revenue collection.

Staff has met with Supervisors and front-line employees to understand any major issues with returning to collecting fare revenue.

The Operator barriers that the Board approved in February of this year, and the air-cleaning ion emitters for buses are all part of the preparation for fare revenue collection.

LBT is developing a communication plan for both its employees and customers, to clearly share LBT's next steps.

There is currently no date set to return to fare revenue collection; however, LBT is preparing for it and will establish a date in the near future.

The date will be communicated at least 30 days before actual revenue collection begins.

As part of the state reopening, Governor Newsom extended the provision of Executive Order N-29-20, which allows for local legislative body or state body to hold meetings via teleconference or videoconference.

The provision allows LBT to hold its Board meetings via videoconference and shall remain in place through September 30, 2021, upon which time the provision is set to expire

Director Gant asked about the timeline for return to full service. CEO McDonald answered that will be addressed at the next sign-up, which is expected in August.

Discussion ensued regarding reasoning for delay in returning to full service.

Director Gant asked if LBT has considered raising the entry level wages for bus operators. CEO McDonald answered that LBT began Union negotiations 30-40 days ago.

Director Gant expressed concern regarding people returning to work and having reliable way to get to work. CEO McDonald stated that is was a concern for LBT, and wants to make sure that LBT has a way to deliver promised service.

Discussion ensued regarding challenges surrounding hiring in the industry.
